War Crimes Trials Loom For Hundreds

Plans Under Way
For Reorganization
Of Armed Forces

HAVANA, Cuba (AP)—Revolutionary authorities announced Wednesday the execution of 15 officers of the armed forces of former dictator Fulgencio Batista.

The executions signaled the start of widespread trials by revolutionary courts of Cubans accused of crimes against the state.

Authorities said 10 officers, including Col. Arcadio Casillas Lumpuy, were executed in Santiago de Cuba, capital of Oriente province and home town of Fidel Castro, leader of the revolution.

Lumpuy was Batista's chief of operations in Oriente, where between 200 and 300 prisoners were reported awaiting trial.

Havana Police Chief Aldo Vera said 800 prisoners are being held in the capital on political charges.

Drastic Reorganization

Camilo Cienfuegos, commander of Havana province, said plans were under way for a drastic reorganization of the country's armed forces, under the supervision of the revolutionaries. He added that regular army men innocent of misdeeds will be permitted to take part in the reorganization.

There were these additional developments as Havana awaited impatiently the expected arrival of Castro Thursday:

1. The United States formally extended diplomatic recognition to the new revolutionary government of Cuba Wednesday. The State Department announced the recognition.
2. Luis Bush, minister of the presidency, said Cuba will demand the extradition of former Sen. Rolando Masferrer on charges he fled by yacht to Key West, Fla., with 17 million dollars belonging to the Cuban people.
3. Castro would not comment on reports that the revolutionary regime would ask for replacement of U.S. Ambassador Earl E. T. Smith.
4. Bush said the method of setting up special tribunals to try those accused of atrocities and war crimes is still under study.
5. Havana's tourist business began recovering from its paralysis.
6. Hotels said they were restoring their normal services.
7. But the luxury gambling casinos are still closed. Their owners cling to the hope they will be allowed to resume operations, despite Urrutia's declaration that gambling will not be permitted in Cuba.

Soviets Report Cosmic Rocket In Solar Orbit

MOSCOW (UPI)—The Soviet Union reported Wednesday night that its cosmic rocket has gone into orbit around the sun after traveling nearly nine million miles through space.

An announcement by the official Soviet Tass news agency said that "the first artificial planet of the solar system emerged in its orbit today."

Tass said the rocket, fired last Friday, was now nearly 620,000 miles from the earth and had traveled 8,990,000 miles through space.

The statement quoted Soviet scientists as saying the orbit of the new artificial "planet" would be closer to Mars than to the earth.

But the scientists predicted "the possibility of earth and the 10th planet (the rocket) coming to a comparatively close distance which will make possible appropriate observations in a remote future."

The Tass announcement said the rocket will reach its maximum speed of "over 32 kilometers (about 20 miles) a second" on Jan. 14, when it reaches its "perihelion" — the point closest to the sun.

That would be nearly three times the speed of 11.2 kilometers per second the rocket was traveling when it zoomed past the moon three days ago and streaked toward an orbit around the sun.

The Soviet scientists, possibly piqued by some western suggestions that their rocket was meant to hit the moon and missed, said again that they had "no intention of hitting the moon."

Offer To Repair Liberty Bell's Crack Rejected

PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—The famous crack in the Liberty Bell will remain as is.

The city Wednesday rejected an offer by a London foundry to repair the crack. The foundry had made the bell 207 years ago.

The offer was made by master founder Albert A. Hughes of the Mears and Stankbank Foundry, the Whitechapel Foundry, in London. Hughes said he would recast the bell free of charge as a gesture of gratitude for America's role in World War II.

But M. O. Anderson, superintendent of Independence Hall here, said such offers have been made periodically during the past 100 years and all have been rejected because the crack is as historically important as the bell itself.

New Regime Granted U.S. Recognition

State Department
Sends Good Will
Note To Havana

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The United States Wednesday recognized the new Cuban government of President Manuel Urrutia.

The State Department said the U.S. embassy in Havana had advised Roberto Daniel Agramonte, the new Cuban foreign minister, of this country's action.

U.S. Ambassador Earl T. Smith gave Agramonte a note expressing the good will of the United States toward the new government brought to power by the revolutionary forces of Fidel Castro.

The United States said it was pleased to grant recognition in view of "the assurances given by the new government of Cuba of its intention to comply with the international obligations and agreements of Cuba."

"At the same time the government of the United States expressed the sincere good will of the government and people of the United States towards the new government and people of Cuba," the U.S. note said.

Smith recently returned to Havana from consultations in Washington that covered the recognition question.

De Gaulle Will Shift Jobs Today

PARIS (AP)—Charles de Gaulle takes over the presidency of France Thursday from grandfatherly Rene Coty, the man who summoned him last May to save France's most powerful executive since Emperor Napoleon III gave way to the Third Republic in 1870.

Governmental stability is his aim for the new Fifth Republic.

Coty, 75, ordinarily would have served two more years.

It was Coty who played the key role last May in De Gaulle's return from retirement, though French presidents for years have been little more than figureheads.

"Call De Gaulle or I resign," he told France's feuding politicians and soldiers.

That would have left an awesome void in France's already crumbling political structure. The feudists gave in.

Coty is getting another job. He becomes chairman of the Constitutional Council, the nation's highest legal body. The council rules on constitutional questions and advises the president.

Political experts expect the premiership to go to Justice Minister Michel Debre.

Baboon Captures Policeman's Auto

TYLER, Tex. (AP)—A baboon captured a policeman's automobile Wednesday.

Patrolman C. E. Sharp was cruising in search of Buckshot, 6 years old, who escaped the Caldwell Zoo shortly before.

Buckshot jumped into the police car and bit Sharp on the right hand, ear and on the nose.

Sharp deserted the car, leaving Buckshot in the driver's seat.

Zoo attendants lured the baboon from the automobile into a wooden crate.

Mother Clings To Hope Kidnaped Baby Still Alive

NEW YORK (UPI)—Police searched sewers, cellars, and the Coney Island beach Wednesday for the body of a newborn infant kidnaped from a hospital nursery last Friday, but the baby's mother clung to the intuition that she still was alive.

Mrs. Frances Chionchio, 26, and her lawyer husband, Frank, 28, held a news conference at the home of her parents at which they appealed again for the return of Lisa Rose Chionchio, who was stolen from St. Peter's Hospital, apparently by a bleached blonde woman, when she was scarcely 2½ hours old.

They announced they were launching a fund for a reward for information leading to return of the child. Their contribution was $100. They invited others to support their tragic cause.

Mrs. Chionchio, mother of a 1-year-old daughter, said she had an "intuitive mother's feeling" that her kidnaped baby was still alive.

As the worry-worn parents discussed the kidnapping, police dug holes in a two-block stretch of Coney Island beach on a tip from a woman who said she had seen a man carrying a box and digging a hole in the sand.

Police also searched basements and sewers in the Coney Island area and sewers in a five-block radius around St. Peter's Hospital in Brooklyn.

Detective Chief James B. Leggett said he had nothing new to report. He said police and FBI agents were coordinating all their information and plans and reviewing what had been done so far. He said they wanted to make sure nothing had been overlooked in their search for the baby.

Pickets Shout Taunts At Mikoyan

A swarm of protesting Clevelanders—mostly of Iron Curtain nationalities—shout taunts at Anastas I. Mikoyan, deputy Soviet premier, as he comes to the Hotel Cleveland in Public Square yesterday on the start of his 13-day cross-country tour. Mounted police officers kept the crowd away from Mikoyan and his party as they shouted: "Russky Go Home." One sign held aloft says, "Attention!!! Killer Loose, Mikoyan OUT." Police kept the crowd at arms-length. (AP Photofax)

Sen. Dirksen Elected GOP Floor Leader

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate Republicans settled their differences Wednesday by electing Sen. Everett Dirksen of Illinois as party floor leader and Sen. Thomas Kuchel of California as his assistant.

Dirksen, choice of the old-timers and once an ardent supporter of the late Sen. Robert A. Taft, defeated Sen. John Sherman Cooper of Kentucky, the candidate of rebellious GOP members, by a 20-14 secret ballot.

A swing by in-betweeners then put Kuchel, a liberal candidate, in the post of whip, or assistant leader. Here, too, the vote was 20-14.

Kuchel defeated Sen. Karl Mundt of South Dakota, whose name was put up by conservatives irritated at the insurgents for challenging the elevation of Dirksen from his present job as whip.

Republicans generally pronounced themselves satisfied with the outcome. These included President Dwight D. Eisenhower and Vice President Richard M. Nixon, neither of whom had a vote in the party caucus.

The liberals, who had been quarantined by Sen. George D. Aiken of Vermont in their rebellion against conservative control of the leadership, attained one of their main objectives. This was to get a representative on the group that meets weekly with Eisenhower to discuss legislative matters pending or to be presented to Congress.

Sen. Styles Bridges of New Hampshire, re-elected chairman of the party's Policy Committee, called the outcome most satisfactory.

Cooper said in a statement he will cooperate with the new leadership "toward the development of a stronger party and of a constructive program in the Senate."

"We will expect our leaders to assure full opportunity for the presentation of all viewpoints in the caucus and to present our views to the President in policy discussions."

Construction Sets Record, Heads Higher

WASHINGTON (AP)—The dollar value of construction work climbed to a record 49 billion dollars last year. What's more, the government said Wednesday, it is headed higher.

The Commerce and Labor departments said 1958 saw a 2 per cent rise over the 1957 level of $48,100,000,000. All the gain was accounted for by public construction, up 6 per cent to 15 billion dollars.

Spending on private construction matched the year-earlier figure of 34 billion.

The 32-year-old victim Mrs. Ruth Ann Montague, was on the rear floor. An autopsy showed she had been strangled, possibly with a rope or chain, and dirt on her heels indicated she had been dragged.

Officers said her stockings were rolled down to the ankles and her legs scratched. Police said sharp objects in the car and other marks on the body left no doubt she was killed by a sex maniac.

She was last seen leaving the front of her home as she was sorority party about 10 p.m. Tuesday, cleaning up after the party, but day. Members of Phi Mu, a national campus sorority, saw her get in her car.

The party for about 30 Phi Mu members, included many of her former classmates at Washington University. It was at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Brookman.

Mrs. Montague was a social worker for the state welfare office and the mother of two children, Douglas, 10, and Linda, 8. Her husband is studying to be a medical technologist at the Graduate Laboratories.

Her body was found by her brother, Donald Jones. Her husband, Charles E. Montague, 34, had enlisted her help in a search when she had not returned home.

Mrs. Brookman told police she noticed the car that turned out to be Mrs. Montague's parked in front of her home as she was cleaning up after the party, but thought nothing of it.

Appeal For Raising Of Trade Barriers Voiced By Mikoyan

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—"You don't trust us enough," Anastas I. Mikoyan, Soviet deputy premier, told business leaders Wednesday in an appeal for trade between the United States and the Soviet Union.

Eaton introduced Mikoyan, whose talk was translated by an interpreter a mouthful at a time. Eaton said "mutually profitable commerce would be a further and broader path to friendship" but that present restrictive legislation "poses a serious barrier."

This was the first stop on Mikoyan's swing from Washington across the country on a "peace and friendship" tour. It produced noisy demonstrations of protest from Iron Curtain nationality groups. Mikoyan ignored the shouts and signs, kept smiling and repeated a doffed-hat greeting to the crowds.

"When I return, I will tell the people of the feelings expressed here by Cyrus Eaton and others," Mikoyan said. "I will speak of the words spoken here which indicate the hope of a peaceful coexistence."

Eaton, who made a fortune in utilities, coal, steel, iron ore and transportation, recently returned from a trip to Russia during which he conferred with Premier Khrushchev.

This steel city with its large population of Slavic origin turned out hundreds of persons to protest Mikoyan's stop here.

The most vigorous demonstration was at Terminal Tower on Public Square.

One woman who charged toward the stocky deputy premier yelling, "Go home, murderer," was arrested for throwing a stone at an escort car. She was booked on a disorderly conduct charge as Mrs. Emma Halai, 19, and said she fled from Budapest two years ago with her husband, Mike.

Alford Seated By Resolution

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Arkansas segregationist Dale Alford won at least a temporary seat in the house Wednesday.

The House shouted overwhelming approval of a resolution to seat Alford pending an investigation of "corruption and fraud" charges in his write-in victory over Rep. Brooks Hays (D-Ark.), a self-styled moderate.

A move to deny Alford a seat practically evaporated in the opening day ceremonies of the new Congress.

But the resolution provided that "the question of the final right of Alford to a seat would be referred to the House Administration Committee."

The group was empowered to "send for persons and papers and examine witnesses on oath in relation to the subject matter of this resolution."

Young Mother Of Two Strangled By Sex Fiend

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP)—The savagely mutilated body of a young mother of two children, the victim of a sex maniac, was found Wednesday in her car near the South St. Louis home where she attended a sorority party Tuesday night.

The 32-year-old victim Mrs. Ruth Ann Montague, was on the rear floor. An autopsy showed she had been strangled, possibly with a rope or chain, and dirt on her heels indicated she had been dragged.

Officers said her stockings were rolled down to the ankles and her legs scratched. Police said sharp objects in the car and other marks on the body left no doubt she was killed by a sex maniac.

She was last seen leaving the front of her home as she was sorority party about 10 p.m. Tuesday, cleaning up after the party, but day. Members of Phi Mu, a national campus sorority, saw her get in her car.

The party for about 30 Phi Mu members, included many of her former classmates at Washington University. It was at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Brookman.

Mrs. Montague was a social worker for the state welfare office and the mother of two children, Douglas, 10, and Linda, 8. Her husband is studying to be a medical technologist at the Graduate Laboratories.

Mrs. Brookman told police she noticed the car that turned out to be Mrs. Montague's parked in front of her home as she was cleaning up after the party, but thought nothing of it.

Bitter Legislative Battles On Defense, Spending Lie Ahead

WASHINGTON (AP)—A new and bigger Congress came into being Wednesday embroiled in conflict over filibusters and the choice of men to lead the election-thinned ranks of Republicans.

The Senate quickly waded into a scrap over proposals to curb the time-honored right of minorities to try to talk legislation to death.

At the end of one fast, indecisive round, the outlines of an intended compromise were emerging on this issue which is so tightly entwined with civil rights. The probable compromise: to let two-thirds of the senators present and voting choke off debate rather than two-thirds, or 66, of the total Senate membership as the rules now provide. Civil rights backers insisted this plan wasn't acceptable to them.

Senate old-line Republicans beat down a liberal insurrection and picked Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois as their new leader for the 86th Congress. Senate Democrats unanimously re-elected Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas as their leader.

Rayburn In Familiar Role

As a formality, the House placed Democrat Sam Rayburn of Texas in the speaker's chair for an unprecedented ninth term.

To resounding applause, the Senate accepted two new senators from Alaska. The House swore in a new representative from the 49th state. That lifted Senate membership from 96 to 98, and the House roster from 435 to 436—the largest totals in history.

Democrats dominate both branches—283-153 in the House and 64-34 in the Senate.

Senate and House galleries were crammed with spectators and with relatives of the lawmakers.

Former members of Senate and House turned out, too, to watch the congressional curtain go up. Among them was Harry S. Truman.

The former President looked down from a front-row Senate gallery seat on the arena where he served for 10 years before moving to the White House.

For the most part, feuding was postponed at the outset of the new session. Nor was the air of tension and foreboding over world events, present so heavily a year ago after the Soviet Union launched its first Sputnik, much in evidence Wednesday.

Ike's Message Friday

Nevertheless, legislative battles lie ahead, over spending, the status of national defense, and domestic issues by the dozen. These will erupt later, after congressional committees swing into action.

What the administration wants of Congress will be laid down when President Dwight D. Eisenhower presents his State of the Union message to Congress Friday and his 77-billion-dollar budget on Jan. 19.

Johnson laid down what fellow Democrats called his own State of the Union message in an address to the party conference which re-named him leader.

Calling for the forging of new tools of government, the majority leader said the monetary system, budget process and tax structure are out of date.

Apparently charting what may be the party course for the months ahead, Johnson added:

"Fiscal solvency concerns us all... but we cannot afford to bankrupt the national conscience to serve the ends of political book-keeping."

Dad, 5 Children Perish In Fire

BRANDON, Minn. (AP)—A father's rescue attempts failed Wednesday, and he died, along with his five children, as flames swept their home in this little western Minnesota town.

The only survivor of the early morning fire was Mrs. Mark Kelly, 36, wife and mother of the victims.

"I've lost them all. I've lost them all," Mrs. Kelly kept repeating until her priest persuaded her to go to a hospital and be treated for shock and minor burns.

From the blackened ruins firefighters took the bodies of Kelly, 38; his sons, Jim, 15, Patrick, 14, and Dennis, 11, and two daughters, Marilee, 10 and Peggy, 2.

Kelly died as he attempted to get upstairs to rescue his small daughters. The sons got downstairs but collapsed within a few feet of reaching safety.

Stafford and Halsell both were hospitalized for shock. Stafford also swallowed a considerable amount of sand.

His right foot was crushed, and two toes were fractured. He was bruised and cut by tons of sand and metal sheeting. During the

Bank Trustee Gets Action In Fake Holdup

NEW YORK (AP)—"Everybody lie down on the floor!"

The command was shouted by a man bursting into the Marlboro Branch of the Lincoln Savings Bank of Brooklyn Wednesday. He was nattily dressed and wore dark blue glasses.

Recalling that four gunmen had robbed the bank of more than $72,000 hardly two weeks ago, the branch's eight employees promptly hit the deck.

The command had been shouted by Augustus C. Froeb, 75, of Westhampton, N.Y., sprightly senior trustee of the bank. He said later he wanted to test the alertness of employees in sounding an alarm.

But before he could explain, things began to happen.

One of the employees, Charles Roppolo, 40, chief clerk, sounded a burglar alarm. Another, Frank Friel, a guard, whipped his revolver from its holster.

By then, Paul McGuirk, the branch manager, recognized Froeb and shouted to Friel: "It's all right. It's Mr. Froeb, the trustee. He's okay."

Three detectives, stationed in the bank vicinity since the Dec. 27 holdup, dashed in.

Thirty other detectives and policemen swarmed into the branch in response to the burglar alarm. "You're lucky you didn't get hurt," one detective, Sam Botwinick, told Froeb.

"I didn't think it would take such a serious turn," said Froeb.

Brother To Mark Mike Todd Grave With Huge 'Oscar'

CHICAGO (AP)—Mike Todd's brother said Wednesday he is planning to mark the flamboyant showman's grave with a giant-size reproduction of filmom's Oscar.

The Vermont marble statue would stand nine feet tall, weigh two tons and cost $8,000, David Goldbogen, 48, the brother, said.

The grave marker will bear no epitaph.

Todd, who died in a plane crash in New Mexico March 21, 1958, is buried in Waldheim Cemetery in suburban Forest Park.

Church-Bound Woman Beaten; Cook Arrested

BALTIMORE (AP)—A woman on her way to a church was brutally assaulted by a man who broke her hip and beat her head on the sidewalk, possibly fracturing her skull.

About 10 minutes after the attack Tuesday night, police seized a 44-year-old man.

Miss Barbara Toan, 41-year-old welfare worker, was en route to an operetta rehearsal at a church when a man accosted her saying, "Come on, have a drink with me."

Miss Toan said after she rejected the proposal and jerked loose, the man seized her again and threw her to the ground.

He grabbed her head, beat it against the sidewalk and then sat down heavily on her.

As nearby residents and passersby converged on the scene the man got up and walked away.

The woman, a case worker for the city welfare department, was taken to Mercy Hospital.

The man in custody was seized at a nearby restaurant.

Police docketed him as Stanley M. Shirley and charged him Wednesday with assaulting and striking Miss Toan, and with disorderly conduct. He said he was a cook at a downtown hotel.

Martinsburg Fire Claims Fifth Life

MARTINSBURG, W.Va. (AP)—A nursing home fire claimed a fifth life Wednesday as a fire chief put the blame for the blaze on an improperly installed furnace.

Wilmer Schell, 92, died of burns suffered in the Tuesday fire that injured four others. Two still hospitalized were reported improving.

In another development, the president of the West Virginia Nursing Home Assn. said the establishment, managed by home, under State law, should have been licensed but was not.

Licensed homes are subject to inspection by the fire marshal's office.

Daniel F. Berlin, of Parkersburg, told a newsman:

"The home here was not licensed, never had been, but under its operation it should have been."

He said the place twice had been called to the attention of the

Probe Slated Of Reports Md. Employee Did Personal Work For State Official

BALTIMORE (AP) — Gov. McKeldin has called for an investigation of reports a state employee did personal work on state time for the director of the State Planning Commission.

The governor said Wednesday he

Legislative Sidelights

ANNAPOLIS (AP) — It took House Democrats about five minutes to complete their party caucus Wednesday, as they speedily approved Gov. - Elect Tawes' choices for key jobs in the Maryland Legislature.

After the meeting, one of the shortest in memory, a delegate quipped:

"I can see how things are going to move this session—all in favor say aye; all opposed say 'I resign'."

One of the first fumbles of the new session became apparent with the distribution of the newly printed roster of Senate and House members.

It lists Sen. James A. Pine (D-Balto County) as "James A. Fine."

Shortly after taking over the gavel, Senate President Della (D-Balto 6th) reeled off the names of the desk officers, or housekeeping crew, for the 1959 session.

J. Waters Parrish of Baltimore County, was renamed secretary. Other officers include J. Roy Hill of Howard County, assistant secretary; Lawrence Birge, Talbot County, journal clerk; Oden Bowie, Prince Georges County, assistant journal clerk; Louis Bessowitz, Baltimore, reading clerk; Tighman Rhodes, Queen Annes County, sergeant-at-arms; and Lawrence Korycki, chief page.

House officers for the 1959 session will include George W. Owings Jr., Calvert County, chief clerk; Mrs. Elizabeth M. Reese, Baltimore City, assistant chief clerk; Charles Hurley Cox, Baltimore City, journal clerk; Wilson W. Meyers, Baltimore City, assistant journal clerk; I. Sewell Landin, Baltimore City, reading clerk; Edwin Carr, Howard County, chief page; J. Fred Kemper, Baltimore City, sergeant-at-arms; Henry Abrams, Anne Arundel County, postmaster.

Firemen Go To Aid Of Stork

SANDY SPRING, Md. (AP) — Sandy Spring firemen Wednesday converted a pick-up truck into an ambulance, forded a swollen creek, and aided the stork in a back-woods dwelling near Bryant's Nursery Road.

A 6-pound, 11½ ounce baby was born before firemen arrived. The infant boy's mother, Mrs. Beulah Diggs, 30, and the baby were later transported to Montgomery General Hospital. Both were in good condition.

On the way to the Diggs home, the fire department ambulance was stopped by a fast-running creek. According to the ambulance driver, John V. Clark, the rescue vehicle was too low slung.

Firemen then transferred first aid equipment to a pick-up truck. The truck crossed the stream, picked up the mother and child, and shuttled them back to the ambulance.

Naval Operations Will Be Discussed

WASHINGTON (AP)—Maryland and Virginia senators are to meet with Navy Secretary Gates next week to discuss the many phases of Naval operations in Maryland.

They include the Naval facilities at Indian Head, maintenance of the installation at Bainbridge, full use of the Chincoteague Naval Air Station, and the Naval Ordnance Testing Station.

Also proposed is the question of contracts to the Glenn L. Martin Co. at Little River, and the Fairchild Aircraft Company to compensate for cancellations.

Senator Butler said "The Fairchild Aviation and Engine Company, with headquarters at Hagerstown, is an essential part of our defense potential. Keeping this company in a healthy economic state should be of prime concern to our military establishment."

$200,000 Allocated For U. Of Md. Project

BALTIMORE (AP)—A federal government allocation of $200,000 for a start on a renewal project expanding the University of Maryland's downtown campus has been announced by the Housing and Home Finance Agency.

Dr. Albin O. Kuhn, executive vice president of the university, said the first step in the renewal project would include construction of a new dentistry building in the spring.

The Baltimore Urban and Renewal Housing Agency said the project covers nine acres. The state is expected to supplement the grant with one million dollars.

The federal government is expected to contribute two-thirds of the eight million dollars needed for the renewal of an area of about 80 acres.

was not familiar with the circumstances but that "it doesn't sound right."

He said he will ask Commission Chairman Joseph Meyerhoff to look into the matter.

A draftsman in the planning commission, Frederic Farley, said he performed outside work for the commission director, I. Alvin Pasarew.

Pasarew acknowledged Farley did work for him at Pasarew's Baltimore county home but said he was under the impression Farley was going to take annual leave for the time away from his desk.

Farley disagreed with this.

Farley said Tuesday he spent about two days during the week before Thanksgiving drawing invitations for a birthday party for Mrs. Pasarew. He said this was done in the commission office.

The following week, he said, he spent nearly two days at Pasarew's home decorating the place for the party.

Farley, a $4,295-a-year draftsman, said he had done private work for Pasarew on other occasions. He said he would give the details if asked by proper authorities.

Pasarew, director of the commission since 1941, now draws $15,000 a year.

Pasarew told a reporter that he had "asked Mr. Farley to come to my place and talk about some commission matters, and to do a favor for me." He said the draftsman "indicated to me that he was going to take annual leave for the time spent."

Farley, disagreeing with this, said Pasarew "asked me not to tell anybody about doing the work," adding that when he returned to the office "everybody knew where I had been."

Commission Chairman Meyerhoff said he has now knowledge of the situation and would have no comment until he has made an investigation.

Russell S. Davis, commissioner of personnel, said he had talked with Farley about the matter but did not have "full details."

Policeman Charged In Wife's Shooting

GREENBELT, Md. (AP)—Mrs. Donald Lee Maglothin, 26, wife of a District of Columbia motorcycle policeman, was shot through the forehead in the couple's home here Tuesday night. Her husband was charged with assault with intent to kill.

Prince Georges County police said the couple's two small sons were asleep in a bedroom at the time of the shooting.

Police said Maglothin refused to talk except to say the shooting was accidental and to refer questioners to his wife.

The several million blueprints used in the construction of the Navy's newest aircraft carrier USS Independence would form a pathway 30 inches wide extending for 2,100 miles.

Rain Or Snow Forecast Today

By The Associated Press

The Weather Bureau has alerted Marylanders with a forecast predicting rain or snow for Thursday, with winter-like temperatures prevailing through the weekend.

The cold wave has claimed two lives. Wesley A. Hern, 48, Negro, was found dead of exposure in a Baltimore railroad yard. William Johnson, 86, Negro, was found unconscious on the floor of his unheated bedroom, and died six hours later in a hospital.

Transport experts predict that by 1970 the nation's airlines will carry 118 million passengers, 170 per cent more than the 44 million carried last year. Vastly greater seat capacity is being made available through the delivery of new turboprop and turbojet aircraft.

Posts On Good Committees Pave Way To Success For Most Congressmen

By ARTHUR EDSON

WASHINGTON (AP) — A congressman becomes known by the committee he keeps.

The average voter has trouble remembering who represents him in the House and Senate. He would be stumped completely if asked to list the committees on which these men serve.

Yet it's here that a congressman gets on a good committee as soon eventually makes his mark.

With Congress opening Wednesday, the most important questions for many a fledgling representative will be: How can I get on a good committee? Any many of those who have been around a few years will be asking: How can I get on a better one?

For the successful legislator as he can, charms the voters into repeatedly re-electing him, and then hangs on until, by the slow drudge of seniority, he reaches the top.

It may not be the glamorous or dynamic way, but if you're in a hurry, junior, you had better find some other line of work.

The House Rules Committee has been in the news lately because several congressmen would like to clip its power to delay, and maybe sidetrack, proposed legislation.

So let's take a look at the seniority picture there.

Its chairman, Rep. Howard Smith (D) of Broad Run, Va., has been a congressman for 28 years. Obviously he can't go on forever, but if he steps down, no rookie will get a chance at the top spot.

If the Democrats are in power, Rep. William Colmer of Pascagoula, Miss., will move up to the top. If the Republicans control Congress, Rep. Leo Allen of Galena, Ill., gets the job. Colmer and Allen arrived in Congress the same day, March 4, 1933.

Another illustration of the value of getting on the right job early is Sen. Carl Hayden (D-Ariz.) has been a senator longer than anyone, since 1927.

Hayden came to the Senate from the House, and was immediately assigned to the important Appropriations Committee, for a couple of reasons: He had had previous legislative experience, and so knew his way about, and the committee needed a Western man for geographical balance.

So Hayden stayed on until he became chairman, one of the most powerful men in Congress, a senator who has had a del hand in the spending of billions.

Yet a reporter who talked with Hayden recently found him still impressed with his quick assignment to a committee that called for years of hard, unspectacular plugging.

"I don't know of another senator," Hayden said, "who has had that good luck."

The city of St. Augustine, Fla., will celebrate its 400th birthday in 1965.

Halleck's Political Fortunes Undergo Startling Switch

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The stocky, peppery lawyer - soldier from Rensselaer, Ind., had seen political glory slip from his grasp with frustrating frequency in recent years.

But Tuesday Charles A. Halleck outmaneuvered one of the savviest old pros of all — Joseph W. Martin Jr. — to walk off with the job of House Republican leader.

It didn't go at all according to the script written by congressional old timers who believed up to the last that Martin would win. And it was a startling switch in Halleck's political fortunes.

The 58-year-old congressman can look back on a series of "almosts" dating from 1948 when he believed he had received the nod as the GOP vice presidential candidate.

In the last four years moves to boom Halleck for House GOP leader have collapsed twice.

The Halleck story started back in 1900 in Jasper County, Ind. He attended the public grade schools and high school in Rensselaer. Then came World War I.

Served In Infantry

Halleck entered the infantry as a private. He became an officer. But flu kept him from going to France. By the time he recovered, the war was over.

Halleck then entered Indiana University; graduated with honors in 1922; and received a law degree two years later. The same year he was elected to the first of five two-year terms as prosecutor.

Halleck first ran for Congress in 1935 in a special election. At the time he was the only Republican congressman from Indiana. He has been re-elected to Congress every Congress since.

House Republicans elected him his lieutenant.

Two years ago, insurgent Republicans once more approached Halleck, urging him to attempt to unseat Martin. But the "support" ebbed and Martin was re-elected to the leadership.

Even Tuesday nearly became another "almost" for Halleck. It took two ballots for him to defeat Martin by only a scant majority.

If Halleck felt like exulting he didn't do it.

When a photographer asked him to grin, he refused.

"I don't want to look too gloating," he said.

Red Boss Quoted As Saying Ike "Walked Into" Propaganda Trap

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Soviet consumer goods in the United States.

His recent talk with Sen. Hubert Humphrey (D-Minn.) told how he believed that "U.S. propaganda had laid a propaganda trap for President Eisenhower and how the President 'walked right into it.'" The Soviet premier said he "just got tired of it."

Humphrey, writing about his eight-hour talk with the Soviet boss in the Jan. 12 issue of Life Magazine, also related that Khrushchev rejected "the very core of Marxist theory."

Khrushchev said that his propaganda victory over Eisenhower people that you did not really care came last July when the President about them. You walked right into rejected Russia's request for credit. You were stupid, you were its to finance Soviet purchases of fools."

ON THE LINE

BY BOB CONSIDINE

NEW YORK — The passing show...

We know a guy in Cuba who is cleaning up selling Castro beads to ex-Batista men. He'll soon be so rich he won't have to run for political office.

One of the more industrious and certainly pleasant charitable organizations goes under the handle of Variety Clubs International, which has raised and spent 75 million dollars for assorted good causes (including the fostering of foundlings) since being formed in Pittsburgh in 1927.

Presidents Truman and Eisenhower have hailed the work of the group which now numbers 10,000 showmen from all branches of the entertainment industry. The organization's slogan needs no apology. It is "The Heart of Show Business."

It all sprang from an abandoned baby, left in the lobby of Pittsburgh's Sheridan Square Theatre on October 10, 1927. A note attached to the child's clothing read, "Please take care of my baby. Her name is Catherine. I can no longer take care of her. I have eight others. My husband is out of work. I have always heard of the goodness of show business and I pray to God that you will look out for her." (signed) A heartbroken mother."

Well, a group of 11 blokes in the entertainment world, including John H. Harris of Ice Capades, took the baby, found a good home for her, named her Catherine Variety Sheridan.

There have been three Catherine Variety Sheridans since then, and many others, including a number of George (abandoned on Washington's birthday in 1936) Variety Barkers.

Circus phraseology is used to tag the facets of Variety. The 46 chapters of the International are called Tents. The whole works is the Circus. The president—George W. Eby of Pittsburgh, currently—is the Chief Barker. A variety doctor is a Croaker and a retained lawyer a Fixer.

Good crowd. Good works, here in the U.S., in Mexico City, London, Dublin and Toronto. Next week is National Variety Week, if you're looking around for something worthwhile to celebrate.

Man named Alfred R. Globus, president and director of medical research for a chemical corporation in Long Island City, was an ulcer man, one of an estimated 30,000,000 in this country. Had to be rushed twice to a hospital for emergency treatment. Well, sir, Globus resolved to do something about it. He told his researchers to get to work on a pill whose base might be milk or a reasonable facsimile.

They tried this and that over the ensuing months, then came up with a pill whose chemical base is the proteins of whole milk. They needed a guinea pig — and guess who got the job? Old Alfred Globus himself. Did him so much good the tests have now been expanded to a nation-wide sampling. Naturally, the first 14 men who have volunteered as guinea pigs in the New York area are all in the advertising business — backbone of the ulcer industry in America.

If you're looking for the real low-down on what life is like in Russia — everyday life, that is — wait until January 22 when Doubleday and Co. present Irving R. Levine's book, "Main Street—U.S.S.R."

Choice Of Finan For Secretary Of State Proves Popular

Thomas B. Finan, Cumberland job being vacated by Claude B. attorney and city solicitor for Hellman, a Republican appointee of outgoing Gov. McKeldin.

By legal definition, the secretary of state's job is essentially that of a record-keeper and witness to the governor's signature on proclamations and similar papers.

Gov. Elect Tawes said Finan's name will be sent to the State Senate next Wednesday for confirmation.

It will be the new governor's first formal appointment after his inauguration next Wednesday and his selection of Finan comes as no surprise.

The Associated Press reported yesterday that the choice seemed to be a popular one among legislators gathered in Annapolis for the beginning of the General Assembly yesterday.

Known in political circles as one of the more articulate, good-humored young Democrats, Finan is expected to receive speedy approval for the $10,000-a-year

Democratic Central Committee, serving as its chairman for the past four years.

For eight of the ten years between 1948 and 1958, he was city solicitor of Cumberland.

A native of Cumberland, he is the son of the late Thomas B. and Mary Maude (Dolan) Finan.

He is a graduate of LaSalle Institute, Class of 1932. He received his bachelor of arts degree from Georgetown University and his bachelor of laws degree from University of Maryland in 1939.

He returned to Cumberland in 1939 and opened a private law practice. He was inducted into the Army in 1941 as a private and after four years service in the infantry rose to rank of captain.

He was with the 45th Division in North Africa, Italy and France. After being captured in France, he was a prisoner of war of the Germans for nine months. After his war service, he became associated with the law firm of Miles, Walsh, O'Brien and Morris with offices in the Liberty Trust Building. He continued this until 1952, when he went into private practice.

In 1948, he was chosen by the Mayor and Council as city solicitor, a position he held for eight years, ending in 1958 except for one two-year period.

Finan has been active in civic and veterans affairs. He is a past president of the Cumberland Kiwanis Club and past exalted ruler of Cumberland Lodge 63, BPO Elks.

Since 1939, he has been vice president and director of the Times and Alleganian Company.

He is a past commander of Fort Cumberland Post 13, American Legion, and served one term as state judge advocate for the Legion.

Carl D. McIntyre, owner of the food market at 436 Cumberland Street, is shown presenting a watch to Mrs. Mary R. Linnane on behalf of her fellow employees upon her retirement at the end of the year as a clerk in the grocery. Mrs. Linnane came to work at the McIntyre market on a "temporary" basis, during the early years of World War II and remained there more than 15 years. A native of Midland, the former Miss Mary Morgan was married to Thomas A. Linnane in Akron, Ohio, in 1924. He was an official of the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company in England when he died in 1928. Since then Mrs. Linnane has lived with her sister, Mrs. J. R. Martin, at 216 Saratoga Street. She plans to continue living there but will travel considerably visiting relatives and friends.

Firm Not To Submit Airport Operation Bid

A representative of the Allegheny Aircraft Corporation announced yesterday the firm does not plan to offer the Municipal Airport Commission a bid to operate the airport as indicated at Monday's meeting of the commission. The only proposal to operate the port has been submitted by Warren R. Mullenax, who has been in charge a number of years. His current lease expires March 1.

Cotton materials were first used in fashionable English dresses in the early part of the 18th century.

Mayor Thinks Workers Should Get Pay Raise

Mayor J. Edwin Keech thinks the city should move every stone in an effort to give its employees a raise in pay but at the same time believes the will of the people should be followed and no tax increases made.

The mayor was in Annapolis yesterday with concrete proposals for increasing revenues of municipalities which he is presenting before the Maryland Municipal League's Legislative Council and Legislative Committee. Among these are amendments to the home rule law to allow other forms of taxation than on the property owner; more equitable distribution of income tax, gasoline and motor vehicle taxes; and a share for municipalities in fines charged for state traffic violations where arrests are made by city officers.

The mayor previously had expressed his concern over the plight of city workers caught in a squeeze between the rising cost of living and the fact no funds have been available to grant them pay increases.

Secrets Of Charm

by John Robert Powers

Figure Ideals

Not infrequently, we all get the opportunity to admire the ideal figure of modern times. We see it in the movies, on TV, or, perhaps, at fashion shows.

What constitutes the ideal figure? Well, everyone has a different conception of the ideal feminine figure. You'll find that many experts base their opinions on the measurements of the famous Venus de Milo. If you'd like to check and compare your measurements with the classic measurements, here they are:

VENUS DE MILO

Stature	64 in.
Neck girth	12.5 in.
Chest girth	33 in.
Bust girth	37 in.
Waist girth	26 in.
Hip girth	38 in.
Thigh girth	22.5 in.
Calf girth	13.2 in.
Knee girth	15 in.
Upper arm girth	12.5 in.
Forearm girth	9.5 in.
Wrist girth	5.9 in.
Ankle girth	7.4 in.

Did you know that the wrist is used as a unit of measurement? Yes, it's an accurate guide to your bone structure.

To measure your wrist most accurately, get someone to help you. Be sure that the tape is placed around the most prominent part of the bony protuberances. Don't hold it too tight or too slack. Write this figure on a slip of paper.

Here, then, is your "Rule of the Wrist":

Your chest should measure 5½ times the wrist.

Your waist should measure 4 times the wrist.

Your hips should measure 6 times the wrist.

Your thigh should measure 3½ times the wrist.

Your calf should measure 2½ times the wrist.

Your ankle should measure 1½ times the wrist.

Reds Lose Members

ROME (UPI)—The anti-Communist news agency Continentale said Wednesday the Communist-dominated General Confederation of Labor (CGIL) lost 570,000 members in 1958, mainly in the former Red stronghold in the industrial north of Italy. Communist CGIL leader Agostino Novella admitted the drop Monday which he said reduced membership to about 3,600,000.

Unknown Factor
In Gold Dealings

Financial mood of the times was neatly summed up by the stock markets' opening indexes of the new year. Gold and industrial stock indexes reached their highest point in 12 months and spoke as eloquently as cold statistics could of prevalent inflation.

Although the yield of many of the better class industrial stocks is less than that of government bonds, the prospect of capital appreciation has obviously proved sufficient to outweigh, at least in some cases, the security offered by gilt-edged bonds. This can hardly be regarded as a healthy economic sign.

The interest in gold stocks, after so many years during which they have been relatively dormant, may be a sign that speculators have renewed their hopes that the price of the precious metal may be increased in the not too distant future. It is difficult to see what grounds there can be for positive hopes in this respect.

The price of gold in the Western world is controlled by the United States which holds the greatest quantity. Furthermore, powers granted the President by the U. S. Congress to vary the price of gold lapsed in 1943 and have not been renewed.

This fact, however, has done little to modify speculative interest in gold stocks or in the possession of gold itself. But in all the thinking of Western governments where gold is concerned there looms an unknown factor. No one knows how much gold the Soviet Union possesses. The quantity has never been disclosed.

If it is considerable, then it could be used in the usual Communist manner, as a weapon of attack against the West at an appropriate time. This is not a new danger, but it is one that has to be considered by Western governments whose main aim should be to maintain the strength of their currencies.

These Days

By George E. Sokolsky

Life's Interludes

Some members of my family had come to visit me and we were all gay, when a telephone message came in to say that my friend and colleague, Seymour Berkson, publisher of the "New York Journal American," had died suddenly of a heart attack. Seymour was a young and valiant newspaperman who rapidly reached the top of his craft. Berkson had his warning but would not stop. He worked up to the last moment without regard to his health. He dictated 10 pages of instructions about news and then he died.

There is nothing amusing in the news of the day and yet, if we are not to be bored, there must be something going on that is amusing, even if it is only an old lady robbing a bank. Women who rob look so sweet and casual. But the reporter devotes himself in this era to the big criminals who head governments and die in bed, poisoned by their successors as Lenin and Stalin probably were.

It is a mad era and the madness is among the great as among the simple people who believe that they can still get rich and live fabulous lives by cheating on their income taxes or the rich who hide their money here and there until one day, Congress will abolish green money and print purple money. A newsman, like Seymour Berkson, was on the top of all this and it worried him and he was everlastingly in search of a story until his heart grew tired and gave out.

One thinks of so many things, lying on one of those hard hospital beds that seem never to fit just right in spite of all the winding up the nurses do. And one thinks of man and God. What does a man think about who has no God? The pain is great. The night is dark. If one complains too much, the nurse will give him another shot. What can one think about to avoid that shot? About oneself? What is oneself? On that stretcher, king and beggar are equal. Both are in a deep sleep. Both are pushed about and mauled and cut into. Truly both are "stiffs." And either can die.

Before one goes to be operated upon, these thoughts, in one form or another, run through the mind as they did through mine and as I am sure they ran through Seymour Berkson's for he was of a philosophic turn.

It becomes so clear as the days pass and the eyes open to sunlight that the will to live is so important as part of the cure. Not everyone has the will to live, for so many know of no reason why they should continue to live. But if one feels God's presence, that is, if one is so passionately a believer in God's gentle mercy and if one believes that prayer does aid, prayer has therapeutic value because it strengthens the will to live. If one does not live any longer for himself, he lives in response to his prayers to God. But to live every person who has been ill must sacrifice much. He must learn to restrain himself. He must learn not to get tired.

Suddenly one is well when nobody understands why he is so quickly recovered, except that in the patient's own mind, he has never really been what is called sick; he has had an accident but he is a well man, a whole man and to prove it he smiles. It is such a marvelous feeling—that smile. For it is life restored. Dead men do not smile. But the live man, if he is a heart patient, must learn self-restraint. That becomes the essence of his living.

Once during the days when I was asleep, I opened my eyes and there was my daughter looking at me. Perhaps to her, I was now an aged man whose blood pressure had to be taken every 15 minutes to make sure that he had any. Who knows what was in her mind? But I know what I saw. I saw her and life was continuous. Nobody could say that I was dead because I still saw my daughter.

One looks through the obituary columns to see who lives and who died. Bill Corum died while I was ill—Bill Corum, so robust, so strong, so full of life, one of the best men in my profession. And now Seymour Berkson—one of a cancer, the other of a heart ailment. The mysteries of life and death are beyond us.

How To Deal With Latin American Dictators?

By David Lawrence

WASHINGTON — There is no question about the fact that the Communists have gotten a toe hold in Cuba. They have a strategic position in the labor movement there and are taking advantage of the disturbed conditions, just as they have in other Latin American countries.

The Communists do not always appear in the open—it is being denied, for instance, that they are in any way responsible for the movement which led to Fidel Castro's triumph. But they somehow manage to affiliate with the radical side and by infiltration influence the course of events.

Communist activity has lately been noticeable, too, in Venezuela, where American oil companies now are being harassed as the government there is prodded by the radicals.

What should the policy of the United States be toward the Central and South American governments that are responsive to Communist influence? To withhold recognition or to withdraw it when once granted means an intensification of the friction. The strategy used in the Middle East—to try, by getting inside a country, to checkmate Communist tactics—may also be feasible in this hemisphere. No line of policy, however, can be laid out with exactness, as each case has its own special circumstances.

There is particular significance, therefore, in the comprehensive report just filed with President Eisenhower by Dr. Milton Eisenhower, president of Johns Hopkins University. In the last few years the President's brother has been giving a lot of time, without compensation, to government missions studying the Latin American problem. He has not only made official visits to many countries but has participated in lengthy conferences with government officials here. He says in his report:

"I believe the suggestion of Vice President Nixon is sound and would be applauded by Latin America itself—that we have an 'abrazo' (embrace) for democratic leaders, and a formal handshake for dictators. Trivial as this may sound, I recommend that it be our official policy in relations with Latin American leaders and nations.

"We have made some honest mistakes in our dealings with dictators. For example, we decorated several of them. Most Latin American nations did the same, and in grander style. Whatever reason impelled them and us to take those actions, I think, in retrospect, we were wrong.

"I recommend that we refrain from granting special recognition to a Latin American dictator, regardless of the temporary advantage that might seem to be promised by such an act.

"I most emphatically do not believe that we should withdraw our programs from Latin American countries which are ruled by dictators. We should not withdraw or diminish our technical assistance programs, diplomatic missions, loans, or other activities. Reasoning which caused one to feel that we should do so would lead logically to the conclusion that throughout the world we should cease cooperating with any nation in which democracy is not complete. Patently, such a policy would paralyze the conduct of all foreign relations.

"Non-recognition and non-cooperation would not help another nation achieve democracy. Most peoples want freedom, though many have never experienced it. By cooperating with them, even through dictators—by keeping open the lines of communication—one may hope that a growing understanding of the strength, glory, and basic morality of democracy will enable the people of a harshly ruled country to achieve and maintain democratic institutions of their own design.

You're Telling Me!

By William Ritt

Dr. Maury D. Sanger, New York allergy specialist, says if you have a rash, you may be giving away a personal secret. Well, that's usually rash.

Dr. Sanger says a rash on the eyelids may mean you're afraid of seeing something you know exists and which is intolerable to you. A lot of these cases can be cured by an extra television set.

A rash on the palms, says Dr. Sanger, means very severe money problems. With some people, however, it's just garden variety itchy palms.

Dr. Sanger says a rash on the ankle means you have "bad thoughts." With a rash on the ankle, who wouldn't?

Then, says Dr. Sanger, there's the external ear rash, which means you're afraid you'll hear something you don't want to hear. Your ears been burning lately?

Teen-agers sometimes get lip rashes, Dr. Sanger declares, and that may mean they want to kiss but feel guilty about it. Usually they just feel rash about it.

A rash on the thumbs means you feel insecure, Dr. Sanger finds. Well, trying to scratch both thumbs at once would make anyone feel insecure.

Consult A Physician, Not A Drug Store Clerk

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen

should I do?" The super-salesman had the answer; in no time he produced a package wrapped in lavender paper and collected $3.75. The customer thanked him profusely and shuffled out.

Dr. Ross was next and he was unable to resist the temptation of saying to the clerk, "What's wrong with me?" The pompous young man snapped back, "I would say, sir, you most likely are a physician — and, incidentally, a very evident eavesdropper." This clerk probably had been reprimanded before.

The old lady had many signs and symptoms of stomach cancer and her life was in jeopardy. Dr. Ross ran after her, urging her to report to Bellevue hospital in the morning. She promised to do so.

Many persons take better care of their dog and automobile than of themselves. When something goes wrong, they take the animal to a vet or their car to a good mechanic. They have learned through experience that best results are obtained in this way.

We take a different attitude toward our own complaints. There is no harm in curbstone advice, provided the ailment is self-limited and benign. But when the use of a patent medicine delays life-saving treatment, the salesman or quack is toying with a human life. He either is stupid or lacks moral sense.

rocket-launcher of power equal to the Russians. They haven't had it so far because the budget was cut. Appropriations were lacking. Almost two years have passed since the administration first knew the Russians had this powerful rocket-launcher (May 1957) yet only recently has the White House authorized funds to catch up.

This is the reason we have only been able to put a pay load of about 30 pounds into the air, while the Russians have launched a satellite weighing one ton and a half. It's the difference between having 850,000 pounds thrust and only 135,000 pounds.

Ike Still Cuts

The amazing fact is that, despite repeated Russian space triumphs, President Eisenhower recently cut back the following funds for vital weapons:

$605,000,000 for four more Polaris submarines. This is the sub which fires missiles from under the water. Admiral Rickover conceived the idea of using these subs to lurk under the Polar icecaps as a threat to Russia in case of war.

$90,000,000 for the solid-propelled Minute Man intercontinental ballistic missile. This is more efficient than the Atlas because it's solid-propelled and can be fired from below ground.

$48,000,000 for the Hound-Dog missile, to be fired from bombers to the ground. This is planned to give an eventual 1,000 miles additional range to the B-52 by permitting it to fire 1,000 miles instead of merely dropping a bomb.

All these were lopped off the defense budget by Eisenhower after having been appropriated by Congress and after he knew Russia was forging far ahead of us.

Diplomatic Digest

West Germany's Chancellor Konrad Adenauer has secretly offered to help France produce atomic bombs. But he has put a big condition on the offer: That the bombs be the joint property of the six-nation European Community. French Premier Charles de Gaulle is intrigued by Adenauer's proposition but will probably delay an agreement until the first French A-bomb is tested.

Karim Kassem, Iraq's left-leaning strongman, claims he is ready to start cracking down on the Communists. He told Assistant State Secretary William Rountree in Baghdad that he had welcomed Red support up to now because he needed their help to smash the pro-Nasser fanatics in his country. Now that the Nasserites have been crushed, Kassem plans to turn around and smash the Communists. Only catch: The Communists, aware that Kassem was using them, reversed his strategy and used him. They took advantage of their temporary alliance to become solidly entrenched in his government. . . . Egyptian dictator Nasser, for one, has warned that it's probably too late to save Iraq from going completely Communist. However, he told Assistant Secretary Rountree in Cairo that the west would be to blame. If the West hadn't encouraged Kassem to pursue an independent course in Iraq, Nasser complained, the Communists could have been kept under control. Now it's too late, he says, because Kassem is a fool who allowed himself to be captured by the Reds.

Confusion Over Mikoyan

Friendly foreign diplomats are flabbergasted at the debonair manner in which John Foster Dulles and the White House kissed off the USA visit of Russia's No. 2 man, Deputy Premier Mikoyan.

Secretary Dulles said it would be "awkward" for him to see Mikoyan, that he would "try" to see him, but he knew nothing of a "date" being arranged in advance.

Dulles has now paused long enough to see Mikoyan in Washington between his arrival from Jamaica and his flight to Canada.

Reason the diplomatic corps are flabbergasted is because they know how difficult it has been to get an allied united front regarding Berlin. They know that the British have been shying away from any showdown over Berlin; so has General de Gaulle. They also know that when an important personality arrives from any country, the State Department takes the initiative to make him feel at home and see the right people. Therefore, they wonder why the Eisenhower administration didn't jump at the opportunity to win over a man who can influence decisions regarding Berlin, rather than give him the cold shoulder.

Note—What members of the diplomatic corps didn't know is that the State Department has been in a dither trying to decide what to do about Mikoyan. They didn't want Eisenhower to see him because Ike has to be briefed in advance. And they couldn't brief Ike because they didn't know what Mikoyan wanted to talk about. They were waiting for Dulles to brief Ike. Difficulty is that Eisenhower leaves all foreign policy to Mr. Dulles, and Mr. Dulles is almost never in Washington.

The Market Year

By Leslie Gould

NEW YORK—For a market about which there were doubts at the start of the year, 1958's turned out to be one of the strongest, broadest and most active on record.

Reports of the long postwar bull market's demise were to borrow from Mark Twain—slightly exaggerated.

The market wound up the year at a historic high and the net gain on the year in the Dow Jones industrial share price averages was 147.96.

A comparison of the two years—1957 and 1958—is interesting. The following table shows the range, the close and the net change of the Dow Jones industrials for those two years:

	High	Low	Close	Net Ch.
1957	523.11	416.15	435.69	-60.78
1958	587.44	434.04	583.65	+147.96

In this department's tabulation covering 36 stock groups, none showed a loss on the year. The smallest gain was 18.8 per cent for the building shares, with the biggest gain—102.6 per cent—registered by the radio-TV manufacturing group. In 1957 only five groups finished the year behind plus signs.

Only two individual stocks in the 141 making up the 36 groups show losses on the year—Douglas Aircraft and Chrysler.

Of the shares in this list, American Telephone on its 3 for 1 split and higher dividend made the biggest gain in points—57½. There were other stocks not on this list that did better—International Business Machines up 225 and Zenith up 65¼.

A straw in the wind as to what is happening here is the move by Britain and 10 Western European nations to cut loose from the dollar and return to free exchange of their currencies. All, including France, have strengthened their internal economies.

While the U. S. stock markets have been booming on a flight from the dollar, London shares have been experiencing almost as extensive a boom for a different reason—a balanced budget and a tighter grip on inflation.

The Federal Reserve remained in character, vacillating on its tight money policy. It was cutting stock margins and the discount rate at the start of the year, and then reversed itself in the late spring and summer. Stock margins are now 90 per cent and the discount rate at 2½ per cent. Earlier last year they were 50 per cent and 1½ per cent, respectively.

The stock market got a lot of stimulus from the tremendous success of two large investment trust issues — the One William Street Fund, a mutual trust, by Lehman Bros., and the Lazard Fund by Lazard Freres.

Then, there were the stock split ups, dramatized by the sudden 3 for one swap by A.T. & T. Trading volume on the Stock Exchange approximated 750 million shares — 747,058,306 shares to be exact. This compares with 559,946,890 shares traded the year before.

This resulted in the bidding up of Stock Exchange memberships — seats — to $140,000, the highest price 1936. While the brokers seem to be cautious on the immediate outlook for stock prices, they aren't as to the volume of their business.

This table shows 1958's percentage changes in 36 stock groups compared with changes in the two preceding years:

G. M. Hitchcock Honored At Dinner By El Fidel Club

George M. Hitchcock Sr., for of the State Department of 11 years superintendent of the Health, and a number of Bedford Cumberland waterworks, was County residents. Mrs. Grayson honored Tuesday at a testimonial dinner at Ali Ghan Shrine Country Club by the El Fidel Glee Club taking part.

Hitchcock will assume his new post as city manager of Fernandino Beach, Fla., Saturday. Judge Richard C. Snyder of Bedford County Court lauded Hitchcock, whom he described as a friend of many years.

About 125 members of the club and friends attended the dinner with Lee Silcox as toastmaster. Among those who spoke briefly were former Mayor R. W. Eves, A. R. Tenney, road foreman of the engines for the B&O Railroad; Charles M. Kootz, Bedford attorney, and Charles F. Hare, president of the club.

The program was opened with the invocation by Rev. Louis L. Emerick, pastor of Elliott Methodist Church on Bedford Road. John Morris introduced the toastmaster and welcomed the guests.

Hitchcock gave a brief resume of his new job and the community which he will serve. He outlined some of the history of the city, which is the northernmost community on the east coast of Florida. In 1962 the city will observe its 400th anniversary. It has been under eight flags since its founding in 1562 by the French.

Hitchcock was presented a billfold and cash and Mrs. Hitchcock was presented a bouquet of red roses by Mrs. Vada Drum Barnard. Hare made the presentation to Hitchcock.

Among the out-of-town guests were Peter L. Dodge, Baltimore.

Hot Coals Probable Cause Of Fire

The probable cause of a fire at 314 Waverly Terrace Tuesday afternoon was hot coals in ashes in the corner of the boiler room, firemen said.

Fire Chief Virgil A. Parker and Assistant Chief Vincent Wegman inspected the basement of the home yesterday. Chief Parker said hot coals had been placed among ashes in a metal container in the corner of the room.

He surmised the hot coals ignited the side of the wall of the furnace room and the fire went up through the partition to the first floor and mushroomed through the wall and under the second floor. The fire had a good start, he said, and considerable fire and water damage resulted. Firemen from East Side and Central station fought the blaze.

Local Man Held On Forgery Count

A 52-year-old local man is being held in Mineral County Jail at Keyser, W. Va., awaiting action of the grand jury on charges of forgery.

Edward H. Miller was arrested by Cpl. Evan Moody of the West Virginia State Police on charges of forging at least four checks ranging from $30 to $67 and reportedly cashing them in Keyser and Romney.

Cpl. Moody said Miller was arrested in Keyser last spring on charges of passing bad checks and later was arrested by federal authorities for forging a check on a midwestern bank. He was sentenced in Baltimore on that count and was sentenced to one day and paroled.

Detainers on Miller have been asked by county authorities.

Open Liquor Law In W. Va. To Face Opposition

By J. RICHARD TOREN

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UPI)—Liquor - by-the-drink faces the same rough sledding in the 1959 Legislature as it has in past sessions. Majority opinion apparently favors repeal of the soft drink tax extension voted just last year.

And there is considerable opposition to a proposal to curb the powers of the State Police superintendent.

These were some of the highlights of a United Press International poll of members of the 54th Legislature convening next Wednesday for a 60-day run. Nearly one-quarter of the 132 senators and delegates took part.

On the question of allowing the voters to decide whether over-the-bar sales of liquor should be legalized, 14 were opposed, 8 in favor and 8 undecided.

The vote was 12 to 8, with 10 undecided or giving qualified answers in favor of giving the voters an alternative of complete prohibition should the question of liquor-by-the-drink be put to a popular vote.

The question of ending the state store liquor monopoly has been a hardy perennial of legislative sessions, but has never mustered the two-thirds majority required to place it on a constitutional referendum. Main backing has usually come from Northern Panhandle and Kanawha County delegations. Harrison Conaway (D-Marion) commented: "I think our tax problems could be partially solved by an open liquor law with the only restrictions being placed on (its) administration by the Legislature."

An opposite view was expressed by Sen. Wilson Anderson (R-Kanawha).

"The only persons to my knowledge who advocate sale of liquor by the drink are those interested in operating establishments where such sales would take place," he said.

"Our present system has its faults and inequities but I do not believe that liquor by the drink offers a perfect solution. . . Should this question ever be submitted to the people, they should be given for decision several alternatives, including complete prohibition," Wilson added.

In regard to the pop tax, passed in 1951 to raise some $3,000,000 a year for the new University Medical Center and extended to powders and concentrates last year to raise an additional $600,000 a year, the vote was:

Seventeen to 3 for repeal of the extension, 12-7 against repeal of the entire law. The others were undecided or gave qualified answers, with several indicating they would vote for repeal of one or both if a substitute means of financing the medical school is found.

"The medical school will have to be supported," said Del. Lakin B. Ours (R-Grant). "If a substitute tax can replace it with for less harmful results, I would favor that tax."

Several weeks ago Senate President Ralph J. Bean said he would propose that the State Police superintendent's power to demote, promote or transfer department members be limited. He accused Supt. Hazen H. Fair of playing politics in such matters.

Asked if they approved Bean's proposal in principle, 15 lawmakers answered no, 9 said yes and 6 were undecided or gave qualified answers. Comments included:

Del. William Parker (D-Marion) — "No. I do not favor punitive measures."

Del. J. C. Cruikshank (D-Clay)

"Yes. Also requires legislation for the superintendent."

Sen. Wilson Anderson (R-Kanawha) — "An unqualified 'no.' No head of any organization or business can be expected to operate efficiently unless he has the right to hire, fire, censor or recognize merit by promotion or otherwise."

Legislators also were asked if they thought more money is needed for any state functions in addition to roads and schools. Eighteen answered yes, six said no and six gave qualified answers. Of specific agencies needing more support, mental hospitals were mentioned by nine, State Police by five, the Department of Public Assistance by three, and "all" or "many" by three.

The grand feature parade, climax of the two-day celebration, will be directed this year by Bernard F. Groves Jr., representing the Winchester Lions Club which, for the 16th year, will provide administrative personnel for the 3½ hour long parade.

Half a hundred floats, 60-odd bands and a grand marshal of celebrity stature will feature the parade.

USC Placed On Two-Year Probation By NCAA Council

New Action Brought By Code Breach

College Said Guilty Of Inducing Student Athletes Improperly

CINCINNATI (AP)—The University of Southern California Wednesday night was placed on two-year probation, effective immediately, in a disciplinary action by the NCAA Council.

The Council said the university was guilty of offering improper inducements to two student athletes.

Southern Cal had hoped to be removed from a two-year probation levied against the institution Nov. 13, 1956.

The new action by the Council, meeting at the 53rd annual NCAA convention, means that during the first year of the new probationary period USC will be ineligible to enter athletes or teams in any NCAA championship event or any of the invitational and like events which cooperate with the NCAA.

Names Not Disclosed

As usual, names of the athletes were not disclosed. However, the Council said they were football players now in school to whom Southern Cal had offered air transportation beyond that permitted by the NCAA code.

The Council said the investigation of Southern Cal began in July 1957. The university had its first opportunity to reply in January 1958 and an extensive investigation has been conducted since then.

Southern Cal was in violation of Article 6, Section 1 of the NCAA by-laws when it provided one prospective student athlete air transportation to Los Angeles during the summer of 1957 for the purpose of enrolling him at a junior college, the Council said.

The by-laws permit one visit per student to a campus but make no provisions for enrollment at another school, in this case the junior college.

Arrange To Repay

In the case of the other athlete, the offer from USC was for air transportation for the purpose of enrolling at USC but also assured the student athlete that he would receive cost-free transportation between Los Angeles and his home during the Christmas vacation period and at the conclusion of each college year.

USC said the arrangement was for the boy to repay the school from income earned during the Christmas and Easter vacations. But the Council considered it unlikely the student could earn sufficient income as he lived a great distance from Los Angeles.

The Council pointed out the violations in themselves were not particularly serious but the fact that they occurred during a probationary period figured heavily in the severity of the punishment.

Boxing Chairman Makes No Threats

NEW YORK (UPI)—Maj. Gen. Melvin L. Krulewitch, new chairman of the New York State Athletic Commission, flatly refused to wave a boxing broom Wednesday during his first press conference.

Sports writers were surprised because nearly all his predecessors as New York boxing czars had promised "a thorough clean-up" when they made their debuts.

"I'll make a study of the boxing situation before giving any comment on my reactions," said the tall, 63-year-old U.S. Marine Corps reserve officer.

If Krulewitch is sworn in before Friday's weekly meeting of the boxing commission, he will preside. Otherwise he will be there as an observer, and the outgoing chairman, Democrat Julius Helfand, will be in the main chair. Krulewitch accepted an invitation from the Boxing Writers' Assn. to speak at their annual dinner, Jan. 15, at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel.

Navy Easy Winner Over Gettysburg

ANNAPOLIS (AP)—Navy's fast-breaking basketball team pulled away from Gettysburg early in Wednesday's game but had to stop a Bullet rally before earning a 59-42 victory behind sharpshooting Dick Brown.

The Middies, who were never headed, exploded a one-point lead into an 18-point bulge with two nine-point scoring streaks midway in the first half. Brown scored eight points during these spurts, which were interrupted by a lone foul shot by Gettysburg's Del Warfel.

Brown, 6-3, led the quick Navy attack with 20 points, while Warfel paced the Bullets with 14. Dick Johnson and Jim Bower chipped in nine apiece for Navy, and Walt McGowan scored nine for the visitors.

FORT ASHBY, W. Va.—Coach Glenn Smith's Paw Paw High School Pirates scored their third consecutive victory and seventh of the season here last night by turning back the Fort Ashby Eagles, 56-51, in a Potomac Valley Conference game.

Paw Paw, loser only to Romney High's Pioneers this season, hopped off to a first quarter lead and were never headed as Junior Householder, Tom Malcolm and Kevin Edmondson combined to tally 45 of the Pirates' points.

Householder paced the scoring parade for the winners with 17 tallies.

High scorer of the game was Fort Ashby's Bill Price who netted 22 points in a losing cause.

Phil Dayton of Fort Ashby and Edmondson fouled out of the contest in the fourth period.

Phillies Turn Down Offer To Transfer To Minneapolis

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Mayor Richardson Dilworth said Wednesday the Philadelphia Phillies had turned down a "fabulous" offer to transfer their National League baseball franchise to Minneapolis.

"Phillies' officials were not available for comment."

"Bob Carpenter, owner of the Phils, does not want to take the Phillies out of Philadelphia," Dilworth said, "but it is very likely he would be seriously interested in a proposition from New Jersey."

A syndicate reportedly is buying land across the Delaware River just outside Camden, N. J. to lure the Phillies.

Dilworth said the Phillies' situation has not yet come to the stage of final decision on moving.

The Phils' Connie Mack Stadium is antiquated, has very poor parking facilities and is not easily accessible.

Castro To Open Int. In Havana

MONTREAL (AP)—The revolution in Cuba only temporarily upset baseball plans in the country.

Frank Shaughnessy, president of the International League, said Wednesday.

Shaughnessy said the league would open in Havana April 14 with rebel leader Fidel Castro possibly throwing the first ball.

Conley Recalled By Boston Celtics

BOSTON (AP)—The Boston Celtics Wednesday placed rookie Ben Swain on the National Basketball Assn.'s injured list. He suffered a leg injury in Tuesday's game against Cincinnati. To replace Swain, the Celtics recalled Gene Conley, Milwaukee Braves pitcher, from the farmed-out list.

MUNICH, Germany (AP)—The U.S. entry Wednesday was placed with Argentina, Formosa and the United Arab Republic for the first elimination round-robin of the World Basketball Championship Tournament at Santiago, Chile, starting Jan. 16.

Betty Snite Cops Slalom

Second U.S. Entry Falls In Stretch

GRINDELWALD, Switzerland (AP)—American Olympian Betty Snite Wednesday outclassed some of Europe's outstanding skiers in winning the giant slalom, opening day feature of the 21st International Grindelwald Ski Meet.

The 29-year-old model from Norwich, Vt., beat out feminine favorites from Italy, France, Norway, Switzerland and Austria, in the race against the clock over a 1,050-meter course which drops 215 meters.

Her time for the difficult course was 1 minute 44.4 seconds.

Penny Pitou of Guilford, N.H., the other American starter, lost a chance to win when she hit the backstretch.

Snite was a member of the 1956 Olympic team.

Coaches Say Oscar Fouls

Cincinnati Ace Charges A Lot

DES MOINES, Iowa (UPI)—Drake Coach Maurice John joined Wednesday the chorus of coaches who think Cincinnati's fabulous Oscar Robertson gets away with murder when he heads for the basket to score.

John, who watched Cincinnati beat Bradley in a double overtime, said, "I sure think Oscar gets away with a lot of charging under the basket."

A number of other coaches, especially those in the Missouri Valley Conference who have to send their teams against the "Big O," have complained that officials let Robertson get away with a lot of fouling.

John, a freshman coach in the conference this year, did hold out some hope for the other Missouri Valley Conference teams.

"Maybe by next year, Wilt (the Stilt) Chamberlain will have moved from the Globetrotters and Abe Saperstein will be looking for a drawing card and convince Oscar he should turn pro," John said.

John, who spoke before the Des Moines Basketball Writers group, said playing at Cincinnati is a real tough job for a visiting team. "You not only have to beat Oscar, you have to beat the crowd," he said.

He said the referees took a beating in the Cincinnati-Bradley game also. "I bet those refs had saddle sores after that game; both coaches 'rode' them hard."

Now it is up to the network to obtain a sponsor for the championship game Saturday night, March 21, at Louisville, Ky.

NCAA officials refused comment, pending an announcement by the TV network.

The asking price could not be determined, but a figure of about $25,000, the fee paid for a major league baseball game, would seem logical.

Dodgers To Play 60 Night Games

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Los Angeles Dodgers Wednesday announced the club will play 60 night games, a record high for the major leagues, in the 1959 baseball season. The National League record was 56 by the St. Louis Cardinals in 1955.

The Dodgers open the home season Tuesday night April 14, with the Cardinals.

Keyser Halts Ridgeley Rally To Win, 62-59

Boor's Foul Shots Ice PVC Contest

KEYSER, W. Va.—Keyser High's Golden Tornado halted a last-ditch rally by the Ridgeley Blackhawks to defeat the visitors, 62-59, last night in a Potomac Valley Conference game here.

Bill Boor dropped in a pair of foul tosses with less than 10 seconds to play to ice the game after Ridgeley had overcome a 60-51 deficit to trail by one point.

The score bounced back and forth in the first quarter as each team took turns leading. Tied at 11, 18 and 21 Keyser took the lead to stay by meshing eight consecutive points on a pair of baskets by Gary Keedy, one by Ralph Wimer and another by Bob Keller as the first half ended. The score at intermission was 29-21 in favor of the Tornado five.

Ridgeley was unable to get close throughout the second half until the final minute and a half of play. Trailing by nine points the Hawks stormed the nets for eight consecutive tallies with Bob Collins dropping in the basket which brought the score to 60-59 with 10 seconds remaining but Boor's foul tosses put the game out of reach of the losers.

In chalking up victory No. 4 and bringing their record to 3-1 in the P.V.C., Keyser played without high-scoring center Ronnie Smith who was removed from the squad for disciplinary reasons. Ridgeley now has a 3-6 overall record and is 2-3 in the conference.

Top bomber for the Tornado was Keedy with 24 points, followed by Keller with 18. High man for Ridgeley was center Bill Scott with 23 tallies.

Dick Times of Ridgeley exited on personal fouls in the last quarter.

In a preliminary game the Keyser Jayvees tripped the Ridgeley Junior Varsity, 45-42. The lineups:

The Associated Press learned Wednesday the NCAA Executive Committee has given the American Broadcasting Co. an option on TV rights.

Terps Beat Duke, 64-33, For 4th Win

Hold Losers To 3 First Half Goals

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP)—Maryland's Terrapins, tough on defense all season, held Duke to only three field goals in the first half Wednesday night and went on to a 64-33 Atlantic Coast Conference victory over the Blue Devils.

Maryland had won only three of its eight games before tonight but is the ACC's best defensive team, giving up an average of 57 points per game.

Terp Coach Bud Millikan won't use anything but a man-to-man defense and it clicked this time better than ever before. Duke, loaded with talented sophomores, didn't score at all in the last eight minutes, five seconds of the game.

The Blue Devils had two foul shots during that time but both of them—by Bill Watson—were missed.

Duke also was held scoreless from the floor for seven minutes, 36 seconds at 9:38 of the first half, getting one foul—by John Frye. Howard Hurt, Duke's leading scorer with 13 points, sank two field goals just before intermission to make the halftime margin 29-13.

Maryland, led by the 14 points of Jerry Bechtel, hit 54 per cent of its shots from the floor against 23.8 per cent for Duke, now 5-6 for the season.

Maryland jumped to a 5-0 lead at the opening whistle and almost three minutes had gone before Duke scored on a foul shot. The Terps then ran up a 9-1 lead and after a field goal by Duke's Carroll Youngkin held the Blue Devils to their first-half scoreless period.

Maryland outscored the visitors 11-1 during that time.

Duke made its last goal of the game with 8:05 left, a set shot by Jay Beal that made it 31-33. The Blue Devils used a zone defense but Bechtel and Jim Hallack were driving up the middle and Gene Danko was hitting from the outside.

Tech Defeats Georgia, 66-62

ATHENS, Ga. (UPI)—Georgia Tech pulled out front in the final five minutes Wednesday night to beat Georgia 66-62 in the second non-conference meeting of the two rivals this season.

Tech's added experience made the difference as senior guards Buddy Blemker and Terry Randall sparked a closing drive that opened up a seven-point gap with less than two minutes to play.

Georgia had tied it up after trailing 13-10 at the half.

Blemker and Georgia's Gordon Darrah shared scoring honors with 20 points each.

Solomons Seeks D'Amato Injunction

LONDON (UPI)—British boxing promoter Jack Solomons Wednesday night donned legal gloves in a fight with Cus D'Amato, manager of world heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson.

Albie Pearson Named American League Rookie Of Year

Washington Outfielder Edges Duren

Came To Senators In Boston Trade, Hit .275 In 1958

By ROB SALMON
BOSTON (UPI)—Outfielder Albie Pearson of the Washington Senators, the littlest player in major league baseball, Wednesday was named the American League's top rookie of 1958.

The surprise selection was announced by Hy Hurwitz of the Boston Globe, secretary-treasurer of the Baseball Writers Association of America. New York Yankee relief pitcher Ryne Duren generally had been expected to win the award.

The 5-3, 160-pound Pearson captured 14 of the 24 votes. Duren, a strapping right-hander who posted a 6-4 record with a 2.01 earned run average for the Yankees while saving countless other games, received seven votes. Gary Bell of the Cleveland Indians got the other three votes.

Traded To Washington

The selection committee was composed of 24 BBWAA members, three from each American League city.

The 23-year-old Pearson went to Washington last January from Boston, the Red Sox getting second baseman Pete Runnels in return. First baseman Norm Zauch in also went to the Senators in the deal.

Pearson batted only .275 for the 1958 season but was one of the best defensive outfielders in the league. A resident of West Covina, Calif., one of his greatest catches was a long running grab of a 465-foot clout by Mickey Mantle at Yankee Stadium in September.

Paced The Senators

Pearson paced the last-place Senators in batting over the early months of the campaign but tailed off at the end of the season. He ended up with 146 hits, 63 runs, 25 doubles, 5 triples, 3 home runs and 33 runs batted in, appearing at bat 530 times in 146 games.

Duren, a bespectacled 29-year-old from San Antonio, Texas, appeared in 44 games for the Yanks last year. He struck out 87 and walked only 43 over 74 innings.

Bell, a right-handed pitcher, compiled a 12-10 record for the Indians last season and had a fine earned run average of 3.31.

Frostburg Teachers Visit Shippensburg

Frostburg State Teachers College, idle since December 17, returns to action on the basketball court tonight when it winds up its series with Shippensburg State Teachers College on the Pennsylvania's court.

The Bobcats are 0-6 for the season and one of the defeats was dealt out by Shippensburg in a 64-54 game at Frostburg.

Bayard High School (4-1) sees action for the first time since the holiday break when it meets Harman High School tonight on the Bayard court.

Coach Jesse Riggelman's Shepherd College Rams (1-4) are scheduled to play Southeastern University of Washington, D.C., tonight at Shepherdstown.

Jimmy Brown Is Named NFL 'Player Of Year'

Will Play In Pro Bowl Game Sunday

NEW YORK (UPI) — Jim Brown, Cleveland Browns fullback who boosted the National Football League's season rushing record to 1,527 yards in 1958, Wednesday was named the professional game's "Player of the Year" by United Press International.

Brown, one of the NFL stars who will play in Sunday's Pro Bowl game at Los Angeles, broke the old mark of 1,146 yards held by Steve Van Buren of the Philadelphia Eagles by 381 yards.

Brown's amazing performance against football's toughest and smartest defenses enabled him to win the "Player of the Year" poll by a wide margin. He received 21 of 29 votes cast by sports writers who cover the campaign in the 11 league cities.

The sports writers seconded the motion of Brown's fellow NFL players, who also chose him the league's outstanding performer of 1958.

Unites Places Second

John Unitas, quarterback for the champion Baltimore Colts, was second in the voting with five votes. Bobby Layne, quarterback for the Pittsburgh Steelers, drew two votes. The other went to Del Shofner, fleet offensive end for the Los Angeles Rams.

Brown, 22, a 230-pounder with a fullback's power and the speed of a 100-pound halfback, is one of the finest ball-carriers in football history. Few players have the combined power and speed to gain more than 20 or 30 yards from scrimmage against NFL defenses.

But during the 1958 campaign, Brown made seven touchdown runs of more than 35 yards. He scored on runs of 64, 60, 59, 58, 52, 41 and 38 yards. No other player ever gave the modern professional football defense, an in-

Flight History Wins Feature At Tropical

Cops Tight Duel With Whittledy Cut

MIAMI, Fla., Jan. 7 (AP) — Flight History and Whittledy Cut duelled for command from the start to the finish with the former gaining a neck verdict in the featured seventh race today at Tropical Park.

Bob Ussery whipped Flight History, owned by the R.B.M. Stable, to a 1:10 2/5 timing for six furlongs. Second choice in the betting, Flight History paid $6.90 to his backers in the crowd of 9,475.

Whittledy Cut, racing for W. M. Wickham, was two lengths ahead of R. B. Walters' Paris All which paced Jack Leo and Max Price's Searching Wind by a half length. Bill Hartack hustled Whittledy Cut to the front at the start with Flight History joining him. They raced on virtually even terms along the backstretch with Whittledy Cut getting his head in front for several strides.

Flight History, saving ground along the rail, gained command on the stretch turn but Whittledy Cut was not through. He again pushed his head to the front entering the stretch. But Ussery went to work with his whip in midstretch and Flight History responded willingly, taking the lead away from Whittledy Cut at the sixteenth pole and gradually increasing his margin in the last yards.

Whittledy Cut held on gamely but could not resist the winner's final surge. Paris All closed well although never threatening the 1-2 finishers. Searching Wind weakened after her early attempt to stay with Flight History and Bomb Boo.

Terps And Deacons Show Strength Despite Bad Records

GREENSBORO, N. C. (AP) — Wake Forest and Maryland had each dropped five decisions through games of last Saturday night, but Atlantic Coast Conference performance charts for the first five weeks of the season give a clear picture of why the two cannot be written off as dangerous conference foes.

Wake Forest, with a 3-5 record, led the ACC in defense with an average yield of only 57.4 points a game and had been outscored by its opponents by an average of only one point a game.

Wake Forest, with a 5-5 mark, had been outscored by its foes by an average of only 1.3 points a game.

North Carolina tops the league in team scoring at 78.2 points a game, also in field goal shooting at 44.4 per cent.

NEW YORK (UPI) — Ballots went out Tuesday for the annual "pro athlete of the year" election with at least five spectacular performers rating a good chance to win the $10,000 gem-encrusted belt.

Bob Turley of the Yankees, Jimmy Brown of the Cleveland Browns, Johnny Unitas of the world champion Baltimore Colts, light heavyweight champ Archie Moore and jockey Willie Shoemaker figure to be the leading candidates in a wide-open race for the $1,800 Hickok award.

"It started out as a dull year as far as outstanding candidates were concerned," said election Judge Murray Goodman. "In fact, up to the end of the World Series the only guy with an outstanding chance was Turley."

Recalls Unitas Comeback

"But things began cracking after that. Brown ripped the pro football league apart for awhile, then Unitas came back after his injury, and old Archie Moore made big news against Yvon Durelle. Shoemaker, who won the monthly award last January, was high up on ballots for three other months, too."

All ballots must be in by Jan. 19, Goodman said, and the winner—the ninth since 1950—will be announced Jan. 26 at Rochester, N. Y., where he'll pick up his fancy belt studded with precious rocks.

Usually, but it's not mandatory, the "pro of the year" award goes to one of the 12 monthly winners. Turley won in two different months—in August for his steady winning for the Yankees and in October for his rubber-armed effort in the World Series against the Milwaukee Braves.

Olmedo Plans To Play Despite Muscle Injury

MacKay, Buchholz Win In Tourney

PERTH, Australia (AP) — The recurrence of an old injury today gave Alex Olmedo a scare, but the young Peruvian has decided to continue his bid for the singles and doubles titles in the Western Australian Tennis Championships.

"I will play," Olmedo said after the examination of a pulled stomach muscle proved to be of no serious nature. "I can swing a racket okay."

Unknown to the crowd the 22-year-old Peruvian injured the muscle in the first set of a match with Australia's top-seeded Rod Laver, but he persevered to victory, 6-2, 6-3, 4-6, 3-6, 6-3.

He was joined in the semifinals by two of his American Davis Cup teammates — Barry MacKay and Earl Buchholz and a highly regarded young Spaniard, Andres Gimeno.

In matches played in near 100-degree heat, MacKay smashed Ulf Schmidt of Sweden 6-2, 6-4, 6-2. Buchholz beat Spaniard Luis Arilla 7-5, 6-4, 5-7, 7-5. Gimeno toyed with Australian Tony Ryan 6-2, 6-4, 7-5.

In the semifinals of this 40-year-old event, Olmedo plays Gimeno and MacKay meets Buchholz Friday.

For a few moments Wednesday, it appeared certain Olmedo would be unable to go through with further matches.

Olmedo felt so much better after a rest and dinner that he told team Capt. Perry Jones a doctor's visit would not be necessary.

"I felt the pang in the first set against Laver," the Peruvian said. "It kept getting worse as I played. I couldn't get my breath. I first hurt myself in the match with Ashley Cooper in the challenge round."

Wagering At Maryland's Race Tracks Shows Hike

$158,952,327 Bet At 12 Horse Ovals

BALTIMORE (AP) — It was a year of economic recession but Maryland's race tracks had no trouble luring the sports who play the ponies.

The 2,254,471 fans who attended 276 racing programs bet a total of $158,952,327 in 1958. It was $1,589,738 more than the bets wagered in 1957 at the state's three one-mile, five half-mile, four harness tracks and a hunt race event.

There was a drop of only 7,353 from the number of fans who clicked the turnstiles in the previous year.

And the State treasury was enriched to the tune of a record $9,257,539.52. This came from its cut at the pari-mutuel windows, license fees, uncashed tote tickets, etc. In 1957, the State's share was $9,148,906.84.

Given In Report

The rundown was given in the 39th annual report of the Maryland Racing Commission to Gov. McKeldin. It was released today by Chairman D. Eldred Rinehart.

One factor in the higher revenue was the three additional programs run last year compared with the 273 of 1957.

Despite two heavy snowstorms which hit during Bowie's winter meet, overall the mile tracks pretty well held their own. Attendance during the 119 days of racing at the major ovals was 1,408,838 in 1958 compared with 1,405,348 in 1957.

Pari-mutuel betting was down $135,956 from $116,872,321 in 1957 to $116,736,365 in 1958.

Snow Stopped Bowie

Because of the snowstorms, Bowie ran only 34 of its 40 scheduled programs. Rinehart said he hoped the six days could be made up during 1959 season and added that four will be picked up in the Southern Maryland's early opening Feb. 7.

The two remaining days have been set for Laurel on Oct. 28 and 29 but they'll be run in the interest of Bowie.

In 1958 Pimlico was allowed five extra days to make up for foul weather which prevented it from running a full program in 1957.

The report showed the five half-mile strips which hold their events in conjunction with state or county fairs improved their attendance and betting pictures nicely in 1958. Attendance was 380,539 last year at 60 programs compared with 348,416 in 1957 and betting totaled $21,852,842 against $19,121,062 the year earlier.

A decrease was recorded at all four harness tracks, Rosecroft, Laurel Raceway, Baltimore Raceway and Ocean Downs. In 95 dates the tracks attracted only 465,094 compared with 507,960 in 1957. Betting was down, from $21,296,361 in 1957 to $20,270,230 last year.

More Careless Bettors

The report showed one thing conclusively: There were more careless or unskilled bettors around the tracks who didn't realize their horse ran in the money. The State treasury collected $106,868 in uncashed tickets. This windfall was up considerably from the $75,577 in "lost tickets" turned in by the tracks in 1957.

Following is a breakdown on mile and half-mile tracks, showing number of 1958 programs, 1957 and 1958 attendance and 1957 and 1958 betting, that order:

Mile tracks:	1958	1957
Bowie 34; 491,546; 371,934; $41,145,216; $31,261,292.
Laurel 40; 502,668; $31,631; $41,395,206; $43,387,737.
Pimlico 35; 411,134; 505,273; $34,331,899; $42,087,336.
Half-mile tracks (all 12 days):
Bel Air 68; 436; 73,968; $3,750,154; $4,539,829.
Timonium 89; 793; 114,223; $3,869,728; $5,459,620.
Cumberland 42; 876; 49,065; $2,322,115; $2,431,494.
Hagerstown 74; 693; 69,165; $4,081,930; $4,058,077.
Marlboro 72; 618; 74,118; $5,097,135; $5,313,822.

Wheeling Race Dates Hearing Is Continued

Testimony Of Three Witnesses Is Heard

WHEELING, W. Va. (UPI) — A hearing Wednesday on a request by Wheeling Racing Assn., that the Ohio County Circuit Court direct the West Virginia Racing Commission to license two 1959 racing dates was continued to Thursday.

Judge J. H. Brennan ordered the continuance following testimony of two witnesses for the operators of Wheeling Downs and one member of the commission.

In its petition to the court, the association said that the Racing Commission had approved June 1-July 25 and Sept. 9-Oct. 31 dates for night racing at a Dec. 2 meeting at Parkersburg.

However, the track operators charged that these were later denied following a request by Waterford Park at Chester for a re-hearing on the 1959 date granted it. Certain dates requested by the two tracks overlap each other.

In testimony Wednesday, Racing Commission Chairman James G. McClure said he had announced prior to the Parkersburg meeting that "it was being held only for allocation of racing dates and not for the licensing of requested dates."

James P. Bellanca, president of Wheeling Racing Assn., testified that in past years the "application" meeting had always acted as approval or disapproval of dates for licensing of specific racing dates for the state's tracks.

He said that in some racing seasons, the commission would not declare ineligible at Auburn, can regain his eligibility if he transfers to a college which has not violated the rules in recruiting him.

Wheeling Downs Publicity Director Pete Bonamy said he asked McClure after the conclusion of the Parkersburg meeting if he could go ahead and release the dates in a notice which he had already drawn up with only the dates to be inserted.

Bonamy testified that McClure told him at that time to "hold the release until we give it (the dates) to the press services."

The Racing Commission was represented at the hearing by Asst. West Virginia Atty. Gen. Fred Caplan, McClure and Malcolm J. Lowe, Parkersburg, vice-chairman of the commission.

Attorneys Robert J. Riley, Arch Riley, both of Wheeling, and Frank Pieranton, Weirton, represented the Wheeling Racing Assn.

Sgt. J. W. Brown Requests To Forfeit Rank

Seeks To Return To Patrolman

Sgt. James W. Brown of the Cumberland Police Department said last night he has sent a letter to Police and Fire Commissioner Philmore Fleming stating that he wants to forfeit his rank of sergeant and remain a patrolman on the daylight shift.

Copies of the letter, he said, have been sent to Police Chief R. Emmett Flynn and the Civil Service Commission.

Would Abolish Job

Commissioner Fleming said last night that on Tuesday morning he notified City Clerk Wallace Ullery to prepare an order abolishing the job held by Sergeant Brown prior to his demotion.

The order will be brought up at the meeting of the Mayor and Council on Monday morning, the commissioner added.

Sgt. Brown was demoted late in November on charges of neglect of duty for failure to arrest Robert E. Flynn Jr., 22, on November 6 in connection with three assault cases.

On Monday the Cumberland Civil Service Commission reversed the decision which demoted the local policeman from round sergeant to patrolman.

Wants To Remain On Daylight

In the letter to Commissioner Fleming, Sgt. Brown said he wants to forfeit his sergeant's rank as of January 6.

He said he is taking the action with regret, but sees no other course since his superior officers have lost confidence in his ability to resume responsibility.

Sgt. Brown said he wishes to remain as a patrolman on the daylight shift.

The commission found that Sgt. Brown's failure to make an arrest was the result of the exercise of his individual judgment and that the arrest and conviction of the suspect was based on evidence not available to Sgt. Brown on that particular shift.

Testimony in the appeal filed by the officer was taken by the commission on December 15.

George Gets Contract For ABL Project

The George Construction Company of Cumberland has been awarded an $87,866 Navy contract for additions and repairs to Allegheny Ballistics Laboratory at Pinto.

The Fifth Naval District Public Works Office in Norfolk, Va., said the local firm was the low bidder to complete the work on three buildings.

Other bidders were Evans Construction Company of Salisbury, Md., $89,800, and Orrie R. Sensabaugh of Cumberland, $90,513.

The work includes built-up roofing, concrete work, sprinkler systems, heating and cooling equipment, control apparatus, masonry, hoists, water, electrical and incidental related work.

Completion date for the contract is May 1959. Lt. Commander E. T. Lofland is in charge of construction at the rocket research center, operated by Hercules Powder Company for the Navy.

Bids for the repairs and additions to the existing facilities at ABL were opened December 30 in Norfolk by Rear Admiral A. J. Fay, officer in charge of construction for the Fifth Naval District.

Deadline Near For Scholarship Applications

Friday is the last day for high school seniors who expect to be 1959 graduates to file applications with their principal for the Maryland teacher education scholarships.

In Allegheny County the third annual examination for the scholarships will be held Saturday, February 7, at 10 a. m., according to Assistant Superintendent of Schools Richard T. Rizer. Former graduates also are eligible.

There are seven of these scholarships available to residents of Allegheny County, one for each of the county's representatives in the General Assembly. Each scholarship has an annual maximum value of $500. The scholarships are awarded by the State Department of Education on the basis of the results of the February 7 examination.

Scholarship winners must enroll in one of the 13 non-public institutions whose teacher education curriculums have been approved by the State Department of Education and follow a course of study leading to a teacher's certificate.

The 13 eligible institutions are College of Notre Dame of Maryland, Goucher College, Hood College, the Johns Hopkins University, Loyola College, Maryland Institute, Mt. St. Agnes College, Mt. St. Mary's College, Peabody Conservatory of Music, St. Joseph College, Washington College, Washington Missionary College and Western Maryland College.

Each scholarship recipient also must give bond that he will teach in the Maryland public schools for at least two years. In addition, he must meet the conditions set by the college regarding this scholarship program in order to benefit from this award and be eligible to accept a renewal award.

Democrats Plan Victory Dinner On January 24

Reservations are being accepted for the Allegheny County Democratic Victory Dinner to be held at 6:30 p. m. Saturday, January 24, at Clarysville Inn, according to Julius E. Schindler, chairman.

State and local candidates in the November election will be guests of honor, and Gov. J. Millard Tawes will be the principal speaker.

Mr. Schindler said there is much interest among party workers and Democrats generally in this victory dinner, because it will mark the return to the State House of a Democratic administration after eight years, and also marks the unprecedented Democratic victory in Allegheny County when two county commissioners and two members of the House of Delegates were elected, breaking a deadlock which had continued for nearly two score years.

Among the guests in addition to Gov. and Mrs. Tawes, Attorney General and Mrs. C. Ferdinand Sybert; Comptroller and Mrs. Louis L. Goldstein; Congressman and Mrs. John R. Foley; Delegate and Mrs. Thomas F. Conlon Jr.; Delegate and Mrs. William Walsh; County Commissioner and Mrs. John Tucker Mason; County Commissioner and Mrs. John J. Rowan; Mr. and Mrs. George A. Boch; Mr. and Mrs. William J. Brode; Mr. and Mrs. Graydon S. Dunlap; Mr. and Mrs. Edward P. Flanagan; and Mr. and Mrs. Howard P. Loughrie will be guests.

Thomas F. Finan, chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee, will be toastmaster. Besides Gov. Tawes, talks will be made by Mr. Schindler who will welcome the guests; and by Comptroller Goldstein, Mr. Sybert and Congressman Foley.

Rev. H. Maunsell Richardson, rector of Emmanuel Episcopal Church, will offer the invocation and Rev. Charles W. Bogan of St. Mary's Catholic Church will give the benediction.

Assisting Mr. Schindler in arrangements are Charles Bruner, Joseph Burke, Mrs. Ann B. Everline, Louis Fatkin, Mrs. William P. Kelly, DeSales Maher, Mrs. Jim McQuown, Raymond J. Miller, William B. Orndorff, James O'Rourke, Mrs. Edward J. Ryan, Richard J. Stakem, Thomas Stephens, Mrs. Miriam Warner, Edward W. Welsh, William L. Wilson, Robin Wolford and John Zapf.

Reservations may be made with any member of the committee and tickets are now available, the chairman said.

The dinner is sponsored by the Democratic State Central Committee, which includes Mr. Finan, chairman; John Ralph Kelly, William P. Kelly, C. William McDermott, Edward J. Ryan and F. Allan Weatherholt.

Mr. Schindler said invitations have been extended to State Central Committee members in Garrett, Frederick and Washington counties.

LaVale Zoning Appeal Heard In Court Here

Arguments Set For Saturday

Evidence in the first appeal of a LaVale Zoning Board decision was heard yesterday by Chief Judge Morgan C. Harris in Allegheny County Circuit Court, who instructed the attorneys to argue the case in court Saturday morning.

Harry L. Lucas and Dorothy Lucas, his wife, brought the appeal December 19 after the LaVale Zoning Board in a decision December 10 had denied the Rish Equipment Company, Bluefield, W. Va., an occupancy permit for property along National Highway owned by the Lucases.

The Rish firm had desired to use the Lucas building as a service and sales headquarters for heavy construction equipment. Mr. Lucas has operated a truck service and sales business in the building since 1947. It has been allowed to continue since zoning regulations became effective in LaVale last May 1, as a non-conforming use.

Not Same Type

The LaVale board, through its attorney Leslie J. Clark, said it felt the Rish firm would not be continuing the same type of business under the non-conforming permit Mr. Lucas held. It cited the size of the huge pieces of equipment.

Mr. Clark said the ultimate aim in cases of non-conforming uses in the LaVale section was to eliminate this type of permit in cases where the use of buildings changed.

William H. Geppert, attorney for the Lucases couple, told the court that the new business would be of the same type as that Mr. Lucas had been engaged in, but would be of a more extensive nature.

Mr. Geppert, who is co-counsel with Hugh A. McMullen for the couple, said the heavy repairs were made in the field as the machines were not easily moved.

Built For Such Work

Mr. Lucas, the first witness, said the building was erected especially for handling heavy equipment. He cited the reinforced concrete floors, high doors through which big vehicles could move and large "I" beams in the ceiling which were used in attaching hoisting devices in servicing equipment.

The only other witness besides Mr. Lucas for the appellants was John P. Mullen of Clarksburg, W. Va., a representative of the Rish Company.

Witnesses in behalf of the zoning rule, all residents of the general neighborhood, were Arnold M. Arnone, Margaret S. Horning, Margaret Jane Carl and Mrs. Dorothea Tucker. Mr. Arnone, who lives next door to the Lucas property, was made a party defendant in the appeal in open court.

Three County Men Will Check New Machines

Three representatives of Allegheny County are planning a visit to Frederick Monday to check in to the operation of Frederick County's tax billing system.

Planning to attend are John J. Rowan, president of the Board of County Commissioners; Supervisor of Assessments Somerville Nicholson and Aubrey Webb, who operates the new automatic machines purchased by the county.

These new machines include the graphotype, which makes the plates on all Allegheny County property, and the addressing machine, which was installed the day after Christmas. In Frederick, the local men will observe the procedure used in running the tax transcripts, addressing tax bills by machine and running of personal property schedules.

Mr. Rowan estimated that the tax bills could be prepared in about ten days, where it now takes about two months to get them ready on typewriters. Frederick County has used machines similar to those purchased here for about five years.

Westernport Man Faces Check Charge In Washington Co.

Ivan M. High, a Westernport man, charged with passing a $75 bad check on his nephew near Hagerstown, was returned to Washington County last night by Sheriff Charles E. Price and a deputy.

High is charged with passing the bad check October 12 on his nephew, Eugene W. Huffman, who operates a service station on U.S. Route 40 west of Hagerstown. He was apprehended by Westernport Police Chief Albert B. Barnard and was brought to the Allegheny County Jail by T. Milton G. Hart.

Deputy Sheriff Edgar M. Lewis said the Washington County officers came to the jail last night to get the Westernport man.

Grass Fire Checked

South End firemen yesterday extinguished a grass fire on the flood control levee along the Potomac River. The call was received at 5:17 p. m.

Glass Strike Negotiators Separated

PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—Union and management representatives met Wednesday in an effort to settle a three-month national strike of 12,000 glass workers but talks got "so hot" federal mediators placed them in separate rooms.

"They were together for about 45 minutes but got into so many arguments we had to put them in separate rooms," said Robert Donahoo, regional director of the Federal Mediation Service.

"There is no common ground yet," Donahoo said. "We're in the exploratory stage since there are still many local issues yet to be settled before a master contract can be worked out."

The talks were recessed Wednesday night until 10 a. m. Thursday after a five-hour session. Donahoo declined to make any further comment.

Donahoo is being assisted in the talks by Mediators James G. Bentley of Cincinnati and Ward Montoney of Columbus, Ohio.

The negotiations between the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co. and the United Glass and Ceramic Workers Union were shifted here from Cincinnati, where two weeks of talks proved fruitless.

The workers are employed at plants in Creighton and Ford City, Pa.; Henryette, Okla.; Crystal City, Mo.; Cumberland, Md., and Mount Vernon, Ohio.

A company spokesman said that progress had been made on various local plant issues but talks had bogged down over seniority problems at the Creighton plant.

College Officials Plan To Attend Beall Dinner

The president and vice president of Mount St. Mary's College in Emmitsburg will be among the guests who will honor U. S. Sen. J. Glenn Beall at a testimonial dinner tomorrow evening at the Clary Club.

Rt. Rev. John L. Sheridan, president, and Rt. Rev. William V. Culhane, vice president, long-standing friends of Sen. Beall, will attend the non-political dinner, which will begin at 6:30 p. m.

The college officials awarded Sen. Beall an honorary LL. D. degree last June at commencement exercises.

James S. Getty, a member of the committee in charge of the dinner, said last night 385 persons have indicated they plan to attend tomorrow night's event.

He added there are just a few tickets remaining and anyone who wishes to make reservations today may call PA 2-0990.

Toastmaster's duties for the dinner will be shared by Lewis J. Ort and Mr. Getty and Chief Judge Morgan C. Harris will present a talk on Sen. Beall's political background. William A. Gunter also will speak at the dinner.

Presentation of the speakers will be by A. Charles Stewart and Mr. Ort. Benediction will be delivered by Rev. H. Martin P. Davidson, pastor of St. John's Episcopal Church, Frostburg.

Assisting Mr. Getty with arrangements are Donald W. Mason and George R. Hughes Jr.

Honorary chairmen for the event are Judge Harris, Edmund S. Burke and William E. Jenkins.

Election Judge Meetings Continue

Two of the four scheduled meetings with precinct chief judges have been held by the Allegheny County Board of Election Supervisors and the third session will be held at 7 p. m. Friday at the Westernport City Hall.

The first meeting at the board's office in the Court House basement attracted Tuesday night about 30 chief judges. A small group attended the second meeting last night. The last session will be held at the Frostburg City Hall at 7 p. m. Monday.

Purpose of these meetings has been to discuss discrepancies and errors found in checking the poll books so that all who voted in the November 4 election will get proper credit.

Meanwhile, Irvin J. Neat, Republican registrar and chief clerk, reminded Allegheny County residents that they may register now so they will be able to vote in the next county-wide election. The office is open from 9 a. m. until noon and 1 until 4 p. m. Monday through Friday and from 9 a. m. until noon on Saturdays.

Long Distance Travelers Get License To Wed

The reputation of the office of Joseph E. Boden, clerk of Allegheny County Circuit Court, as the "crossroads of America" was maintained yesterday when residents of North Dakota and Minnesota got a marriage license here.

The license was issued to Wilard Ewald Medenwaldt, Hanks, N. Dakota, and Joan Van Steenwyk, Minneapolis, Minn.

Legislature Opens 90-Day 'Long' Session

Della, Wilkinson Get Top Positions

By HERB THOMPSON

ANNAPOLIS (AP)—Maryland's Legislature opened a 90-day session Wednesday under firm control of Democratic majorities and with a plea from outgoing Gov. McKeldin to "sink partisan and factional differences" when the welfare of the state is at stake.

The lame duck Republican, who will turn over the executive office to Democrat J. Millard Tawes next Wednesday, addressed a joint session of the Senate and House after they had speedily organized for business under the whip hand of Tawes.

McKeldin was mindful of the huge Democratic margins of 116-7 in the House and 26-3 in the Senate as he made what was his last scheduled appearance before the Maryland Legislature.

'Sink Differences'

"As to the session beginning today, my one recommendation is this: That in any matter gravely affecting the prosperity and welfare of the state you sink partisan and factional differences and give to the governor your best counsel and loyal support," he told the legislators.

"I make this recommendation because from past experience I feel that it will be well received," he said. "For in every serious crisis in the past eight years, some members of the opposition party in this body have invariably given me valuable advice and needed support."

"In view of that record, the least I can do now is pledge to my successor all the assistance in my power in whatever measures he may take to safeguard and advance the interest of Maryland."

Tawes, returning the Democrats to control of the State House after an eight-year absence, was already receiving full cooperation from the General Assembly, although there was a grumbling among some members over their lack of individual choice in picking the legislative leadership.

Democrats speedily approved in party caucuses Wednesday morning the slate of leaders picked by Tawes and some of his top aides at a conference Tuesday. George W. Della (D-Balto 6th) was sworn in as Senate president with Edward S. Northrop (D-Montgomery) majority floor leader and chairman of the Finance Committee.

Frederick C. Maikus Jr. (D-Dorchester) again heads the Senate Judicial Proceedings Committee. Perry O. Wilkinson, longtime speaker pro-tem of the House, became speaker with Del. A. Gordon Boone (D-Balto County) again majority floor leader of that chamber. Del. Ridgely Melvin (D-Anne Arundel) was named chairman of the Judiciary Committee.

Sen. Mary Nock (D-Wicomico), named president pro-tem of the Senate, swore in members of that chamber for new four-year terms. Del. Jerome Robinson (D-Balto 4th), new speaker pro-tem of the House, administered the oaths of office to delegates.

Will Study Work Monday

Legislative leaders agreed to recess late Wednesday after hearing Gov. McKeldin and come back Monday night to get down to business of the session. The only other formal business on the calendar was receiving the first batch of legislation — 47 bills and two joint resolutions from the Legislative Council.

The organization was one of the swiftest in years for a newly elected assembly.

McKeldin recited for legislators accomplishments which he said his administration had made with the cooperation of the Legislature since 1951.

Cites Achievements

"If you wish to know what we have been doing in the past eight years, look around you," he said. "Look at the road system, not merely the great expressways on which the federal government shared the cost, but especially the lateral and secondary roads which were the state's exclusive work."

"Look at the expanded hospitals. Look at the state office building in Annapolis and at the group of magnificent new buildings in Baltimore, which are indeed ornaments to the city, but which are most worthwhile because they will contribute to the ease and convenience of all who have business with the state departments."

"Look at the University of Maryland, Morgan State College and the various state teacher's colleges."

"Look at the modernization of the prisons and especially at the great new Patuxent Institution for defective delinquents."

McKeldin said that this Legislature, however, will be more concerned with things to be done rather than those already done. Legislators will be hearing about this from their new governor, he said.

The only development of the day approaching surprise was a $10 per day expense account increase legislators voted themselves — something they can do at their own whim. They boosted their daily allowance while in session from $20 to $30. They had hiked it from $10 to $20 only last year.

Some members explained that it would make up for the proposed increase in their $1,800 annual salaries which got snarled up in a Senate-House dispute last session.
